GOD PUNISHES THE CHILDREN AND THEIR CHILDREN FOR THE SINS OF THE FATHERS

Boniface MENYE

Exodus 34:6-8, *« And he passed in front of Moses, proclaiming, «The Lord , the Lord , the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness, maintaining love to thousands, and forgiving wickedness, rebellion and sin. Yet he does not leave the guilty unpunished; he punishes the children and their children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation.» Moses bowed to the ground at once and worshiped."*This passage Sets the principle of human's accountability for sin. Man is morally accountable for his own conduct. If he sins, God punishes him and his children.

When Moses was interceding without considering that God punishes the children for the sin of the fathers, God reminded him of this principle. Moses realized how serious it was and bowed down in worship. Later on, the children of Israel, who did not want to abandon their sins, began to grumble and even coined a proverb, a saying: «What do you people mean by quoting this proverb about the land of Israel: 'The fathers eat sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge?» Ézéchie18.2

God was not pleased. He says in Ezekiel 18:30–32: «Therefore, O house of Israel, I will judge you, each one according to his ways, declares the Sovereign LORD. Repent! Turn away from all your offenses; then sin will not be your downfall. Rid yourselves of all the offenses you have committed, and get a new heart and a new spirit. Why will you die, O house of Israel? For I take no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Sovereign LORD. Repent and live!»

Some believe that God had reconsidered His position. God changed nothing. This verse is translated as if God was correcting His Word in Exodus 34:6–8. God was condemning a fatalistic and injustice proverb. God restores His truth. He says that no one will bear the punishment for a sin they did not commit, because their invented proverb fostered the belief that God punishes innocent and blameless children for their parents' sins. You may be angry with your parents for worshipping idols, meanwhile you have a pack of cigarettes in your pocket! You deserve to die. Even setting aside your father's sins, you are a dead person because of the pack of cigarettes in your pocket. The lust and adultery you have committed condemn you. God does not like this proverb. He says, "All right, I accept that everyone will die for their own sin." If God says that, who will remain alive? No one! But God's truth has not changed.

Isaiah 65:1-8, «I revealed myself to those who did not ask for me; I was found by those who did not seek me. To a nation that did not call on my name, I said, 'Here am I, here am I. All day long I have held out my hands to an obstinate people, who walk in ways not good, pursuing their own imaginations; a people who continually provoke me to my very face, offering sacrifices in gardens and burning incense on altars of brick; who sit among the graves and spend their nights keeping secret vigil; who eat the flesh of pigs, and whose pots hold broth of unclean meat; who say, 'Keep away; don't come near me, for I am too sacred for you!' Such people are smoke in my nostrils, a fire that keeps burning all day. See, it stands written before me: I will not keep silent but will pay back in full; I will pay it back into their laps both your sins and the sins of your fathers," says the Lord. "Because they burned sacrifices on the mountains and defied me on the hills, I will measure into their laps the full payment for their former deeds." This is what the Lord says: "As when juice is still found in a cluster of grapes and men say, 'Don't destroy it, there is yet some good in it,' so will I do on behalf of my servants; I will not destroy them all.»

God says He refuses to listen to us. He refuses to keep silent. He says, "I will make you bear the sins of your fathers," Let no one deceive you. God punishes the sins of the fathers upon the children. That is why we are here. Pray sincerely. If you don't, you will suffer the consequences of your fathers' sins and the fact that God punishes the sins of the fathers upon the children. Do not listen to the proverbs and sayings that God has condemned. He reveals in the book of Ezekiel 18 that it is a common proverb. God has settled the matter; He punishes the sin of the fathers; He punishes the sins of the fathers upon the children; He curses the blessings of rebellious people. He cannot say that the guilty has become pure so easily.

God means that He loves the sinner, but the sinner does not love Him. God comes out and says to the sinner: "Here I am, here I am!" But the sinner refuses to listen. God says: "They do not seek Me. I even reveal Myself to them, but they reject Me." I even give them a revelation of who I am, but they reject me and say: "The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge; our fathers who have sinned are there, and we are suffering." They said that God is the one causing the children's teeth to be set on edge. To them, God punishes the children for no reason.

If you are sitting here tonight and want to make things right with God, He will never command your destruction. He will spare you. Throughout Israel's history, the children who had been righteous were spared from God's judgments. It is said that the righteous man was tormented in his soul by what he saw and heard from the sinners around him. God cannot command that a cluster of grapes containing juice be destroyed.

Brethren, let us pray for deliverance. This is serious. God says, "I will not keep silent.

I cannot change, because you whisper lies. You misinterpret the Scriptures. Why do you use this proverb? Why do you teach it? Encourage people to stand before Me to intercede for their families and be a blessing to their families." The Word of God says that God does all these things so that the sinner may repent. Does the sinner want to repent?

> Ezekiel 18:30-32, «Therefore, O house of Israel, I will judge you, each one according to his ways, declares the Sovereign LORD. Repent! Turn away from all your offenses; then sin will not be your downfall. Rid yourselves of all the offenses you have committed, and get a new heart and a new spirit. Why will you die, O house of Israel? For I take no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Sovereign LORD. Repent and live!»

If you repent, you will live. You who continue to live in sin and murmur against God, if you repent, you will live. Decide to turn away from sin, and you shall live. If you make that decision even tonight, you will live. God will forgive all your past sins, and on the Day of Judgment, you will not be cast into the flames. In case you die before the Judgment Day, the Lord will take you to heaven to live with Him in paradise. You will not be like the unbelievers. The Lord is calling you to Him. All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and all are forgiven as soon as they turn to Jesus. You will live, and the yoke of the curse of your ancestors' sin will be broken, because God will have found juice in a cluster of grapes. God is good; God is patient. God is love, because you are a new person. God loves you. God is with you. When you call on Him, He listens. He hears your cries.

God wants you to abandon the sin you are committing. If it is stealing, you stop, repent, and abandon this sin. If you repent without abandoning that sin, it becomes an idol.

I don't know how many times you have given your life to Jesus. At first, you accept the Gospel because you think it is easy. Then the devil says to you: "Are you really going to abandon beer and koutoukou (local liquor)?" And you run away! That's your problem. You want to come to Christ without forsaking sin.

God is calling you to Him. You must turn away from fetishes, idolatry, and the like. You must change your ways today, not later. Otherwise, you will not escape God's wrath. If you practice injustice, change and practice justice instead. You must drive out immorality, abandon lies, false worship, and everything used to deceive. You must change. If you are a backslider, return to Jesus. You were standing, but you fell. Rise up! No one falls and remains lying down. You must rise up.

Obtaining what you came here for in this prayer crusade will depend on how you handle your relationship with God right now. Do you accept Him? Are you ready to glorify Him?

The Lord is asking you to flee from sin, and the ruin in your life will come to an end. This crusade is a crusade of compassion—compassion for the lost souls. You must pray for your family with compassion. And if you even remember an unbeliever, ask God to help him. We are discovering that God loves intercessors. He looks for them so earnestly that if He finds none, He unleashes his wrath.

> Luke 22:31, «Simon, Simon, Satan has asked to sift you as wheat.»
> Good News Translation (GNT): «Simon, Simon! Listen! Satan has received permission to test all of you, to separate the good from the bad, as a farmer separates the wheat from the chaff.»

The devil exists, but Jesus has defeated him. For some reasons, the devil is after you to make you suffer. He asks Jesus to hand his disciples over to him so that he may sift them, torment them. You are going to tell satan that you no longer belong to him. When you stood up to give your life to Jesus before men, you defeated the devil. From that act onward, you won the battle. If you remained seated, know that you have lost the battle. But you can still change right now, for in Jesus there is no fatalism.

We insist: all spirit husbands, leave! We release true marriages! We cast out the demons that block lives! We cast out the demons that block marriages and release true marriages!
