CRUSADE FOR THE OVERTHROW OF PERSONAL AND FAMILY PRINCIPALITIES

OVERTHROW OF PERSONAL AND FAMILY PRINCIPALITIES

N^{b} 0684
18th Edition

1 July to 9 August 2026

SUMMARY DAY 4

4 July 2026

Evangelistic Message

JESUS WAS CRUCIFIED; WHOEVER BELIEVES IN HIM IS SAVED!

Warfare Prayer

O FATHER, YOUR PEOPLE KEPT THE BLESSING FOR ONLY A SHORT WHILE

Boniface MENYE

Evangelistic Message
JESUS WAS CRUCIFIED; WHOEVER BELIEVES IN HIM IS SAVED!

Numbers 21:1–9, " When the Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev, heard that Israel was coming along the road to Atharim, he attacked the Israelites and captured some of them. Then Israel made this vow to the Lord: If you deliver these people into our hands, we will totally destroy their cities. The Lord listened to Israel's plea and gave the Canaanites over to them. They completely destroyed them and their towns; so the place was named Hormah. They travelled from Mount Hor along the route to the Red Sea, to go around Edom. But the people grew impatient on the way; they spoke against God and against Moses, and said: Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the desert? There is no bread! There is no water! And we detest this miserable food! Then the Lord sent venomous snakes among them; they bit the people and many Israelites died. The people came to Moses and said: We sinned when we spoke against the Lord and against you. Pray that the Lord will take the snakes away from us. So Moses prayed for the people. The Lord said to Moses: Make a snake and put it up on a pole; anyone who is bitten can look at it and live. So Moses made a bronze snake and put it up on a pole. Then when anyone was bitten by a snake and looked at the bronze snake, he lived."

This passage from the Holy Scriptures teaches us the way of salvation. It shows us what we need to do to be saved. The children of Israel had been defeated by their enemies and had wept bitterly. In the midst of that situation, they made a vow to God saying, "If You deliver us from the hand of our enemies, we will worship You." God came to their help and delivered them from their enemies. However, their joy did not last long. Soon afterward, they faced another need. Confronted with this new difficulty, they forgot the goodness God had just shown them and began to complain. As a result, God punished them. He sent fiery serpents to bite them. Then they realized their sin and cried out to God for forgiveness.

Let us now examine the path that God taught them—the instructions He gave them so that they might be saved.

Numbers 21:1–3, "When the Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev, heard that Israel was coming by the way of Atharim, he fought against Israel and took some of them captive. Then Israel made a vow to the Lord, saying, 'If You will indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities.' The Lord listened to Israel's voice and delivered up the Canaanites. They utterly destroyed them and their cities; therefore the place was called Hormah."

> Numbers 21:4–6, "Then they journeyed from Mount Hor by the way of the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom. And the soul of the people became very discouraged on the way. The people spoke against God and against Moses: 'Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no bread, nor is there any water, and we loathe this worthless food.' Then the Lord sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and many of the people of Israel died."

The people became hungry and thirsty. As they journeyed through the wilderness, they began to murmur against God and against Moses. The punishment God sent upon them came in the form of venomous serpents whose bites brought death. Because they complained, God disciplined them. He sent fierce and deadly serpents from the wilderness to bite them, and everyone who was bitten died.

When the people saw that death was spreading among them, they realized that if nothing changed, they would all perish. So they rushed to Moses and begged him to pray to the Lord on their behalf. They said to Moses, "Pray to the Lord. Present our situation before Him, so that He might take away these serpents that are killing us." They asked Moses to intercede on their behalf. Moses prayed for the people. Seeing their suffering, he interceded on their behalf. He asked God to forgive them and pleaded for His mercy.

Since the very first day of this crusade, the Holy Spirit has been leading us to seek God's compassion and mercy. All who have sinned and ask God for forgiveness will be forgiven, cleansed, and sanctified.

Moses was a good leader. Good leaders plead with God to forgive those who have sinned.

What did God do after Moses prayed? The Lord instructed Moses to make a bronze serpent, place it on a pole, and proclaim to all the people that God had answered their prayer. Anyone who had been bitten by a serpent, could look at the bronze serpent lifted up on the pole and not die. Whenever someone was bitten and looked at the bronze serpent, he was healed. The poison disappeared, and he was completely restored. Everyone who had been bitten was saved, except those who refused to look at the bronze serpent.

Jesus would later explain the meaning of the bronze serpent.

> John 3:14–15, "And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life."

Jesus was saying that He Himself would be crucified, just as the serpent was lifted up on the pole. In other words, He was saying: "I will be hung on a cross, with nails driven through My hands and My feet."

Jesus was saying that He would be crucified and that, after His crucifixion, anyone who believes in Him will be saved.

Jesus means, "I am not a mere man. I am God's answer to the problems of this world." In other words, He means, "I am the solution to the problems of hunger, childbearing, sickness, deliverance, and every other human need." Whatever your problem may be, if the serpent has bitten you, look at the Bronze Serpent, and you will be healed.

Jesus meant that the true Bronze Serpent was about to come, and that He would be a human being. He was saying: "It is I—Jesus. When I am lifted up, everyone who believes in Me will be saved." Jesus died on the cross. He was crucified while people mocked Him. His blood was shed. His hands, His feet, and His side were pierced. If anyone desires to be saved, all they need to do is believe in Jesus Christ.

Dear friend, if you want to be saved, Jesus says to you: "Have you been bitten by a serpent? Have you been bitten by the serpent of celibacy? By the serpent of unemployment? Has the serpent of sickness, epilepsy, or depression bitten you? Have the idols in your family, together with the practices of witchcraft and immorality, released countless serpents into your life? God judges these things. But if you have already been bitten, I say to you: 'Come to Me, and you will be saved.' That is why, whenever a drunkard comes to Jesus of Nazareth, he testifies that he has been set free and no longer drinks alcohol.

Even if you are a drunkard, if you surrender your life to Jesus, you will be delivered and forgiven. Jesus declared: "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, that whoever believes in Him should not perish."

When you have Jesus, you are no longer under bondage—you are free to choose. Jesus gives freedom! Jesus sets people free! He breaks every chain! He shatters every bondage! When an evil spirit enters your life, Jesus commands it to leave. He came to set the captives free.

Isaiah 61:1–3, "The Spirit of the Lord God is upon Me, because the Lord has anointed Me to preach good tidings to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound; to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; to console those who mourn in Zion, to give them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He may be glorified."

Jesus came to heal the brokenhearted. Jesus came to proclaim freedom for the captives. He came to proclaim freedom to those who are imprisoned. Jesus came to proclaim a season of forgiveness. God has decided to forgive everyone who repents, and He has commanded that the message of forgiveness be preached to all who turn to Him in repentance.

The wicked, however, will be judged. For, there is no peace for the wicked. Do not think that you can run away from God and still find happiness on this earth. If you turn away from Him, despise Him, and choose to live in disorder, He will contend with you. For He said: "I will curse your blessings." This is why some people have lost their jobs.

Jesus came to comfort those who mourn and to clothe them with garments of praise. We shall be called trees of righteousness. You shall be called a planting of the Lord, and you shall bear abundant fruit.

Who has been bitten by the serpents? Your life reflects the life of someone who has been bitten by serpents. You have been bitten by one serpent—or by many—yet you are still alive. Others have died before your very eyes, but by God's grace you are still living. And because you are still alive, you still have time to give your life to Jesus. If you are ready to do so tonight, raise your hand and come!

Warfare Prayer

O FATHER, YOUR PEOPLE KEPT THE BLESSING FOR ONLY A SHORT WHILE

> Isaiah 63:18, "Your holy people possessed Your sanctuary but for a little while; our adversaries have trodden down Your sanctuary."

Tonight, you must pray earnestly for yourself. This passage speaks about people whom God had blessed. God blessed them abundantly. They rejoiced for a little while, but then the enemy came and took everything away. God had given them everything. They testified of His goodness. But later, when you saw them again, you wondered whether their testimony had even been true.

- A brother testified that he had been delivered from smoking. Now you begin to wonder what happened to him. His victory did not last. When he speaks, you smell alcohol and cigarette smoke on his breath. You ask him, "Didn't you testify? Then what is this smell?" His victory did not last. He gave his testimony in the morning, but by evening he had already fallen again. Someone bought a new car, and on that very same day it was involved in an accident and completely damaged.

Father, Your people have kept their blessing only for a little while.

You are going to pray for yourself. Everything that you have lost must be recovered from the enemy. Tonight, you must take hold of your blessings once again. You were blessed, and everyone witnessed it, but it did not last.

The children of God— Jesus' younger brothers and sisters—possessed their inheritance only for a short while. Then the sorcerers came and snatched everything. The demons returned. For an entire year you no longer saw the spirit husband. But now you see him three times a day. There is evidence that you once had victory. There is also evidence that the victory did not last. That is our cry tonight.

Stand up and say:

- Lord, it did not last! Lord, it did not last! This knee had been healed, and I testified about it. Yet, one month later, the sickness returned!

O Lord, I, Your child, kept this blessing for only a month... only a day... only a week! Then the enemy came and defiled everything! Let them be overthrown! Let my blessings be recovered!

Do not pray like someone who does not know where he is heading to. Pray like a warrior! You were blessed, and two weeks later, the enemy came back to take what you had snatched from him. And you return empty-handed before your Father. Such a person does not pray, saying: "Lord, you see the enemy!"

- Father, I was only able to keep what You gave me for a short while! (Keep praying)
- O Father, it did not last... (Pray with strength, pray with fervor!)
- In the name of Jesus Christ, let every spirit that was cast out and has returned be struck down! Every demon that was cast out and has returned, let it be struck down, driven out!

In the name of Jesus, let every sickness that was healed and has returned be uprooted, torn out, and cast into the abyss! Sickness that had left and has returned, we cast you out! Out and do not return again! Epilepsy that left and has returned, go away and never return again! Hemorrhoids, you who had left, I testified but you have returned. I cast you out of my body! Hemorrhoids, go away!

Continue to pray. Judge everything that should no longer be; the debts that have returned. Let the demon behind this phenomenon be judged and cast out! Depression that left and has returned, we cast you out! (Keep praying. Pray with fervor!)

Say:

- With one accord, we command everything that had left, under the judgment of God, and has returned, to go away! We strike them, we judge them, and we cast them out! We snatch everything that has been stolen! (Now reclaim by faith.)
- In the name of Jesus, by faith in Jesus, by the authority Jesus has given us, I snatch everything that was stolen from me! (Keep praying with fervor!)
- In the name of Jesus, wherever it has been hidden—in the abyss, in Hades, in the waters, in places deeper than the waters, under the earth, in tree trunks, in tree roots, in flowing waters, in swamps, everywhere the enemy has hidden it, whether among demons, among men, or among angels, we recover it all!
- We uproot everything that must be uprooted! We pull down everything that must be pulled down! We roll away everything that must be rolled away! Let everything called disgrace be rolled away! Let freedom return to my family's life! (Keep praying, the Lord is at work.)
- Even if what was stolen from us is in Hades, we take it back! Even if it is planted in someone, in a secret room, we take it back! If it is a contract that was signed and hidden, we take that contract back! (Keep praying.)

Jesus said that when a demon is cast out, it goes away and then returns to see whether the house is empty. In the name of Jesus, we bless every child of God with the fullness of the Holy Spirit.

Now, let us pray that every demon be sent back to where it came from.

Remain calm! Stay in a spirit of warfare.

Say:

- Demon, Begone !

I declare that what God has given me belongs to me! (Continue praying.)

Some people know exactly what the enemy has stolen from them because they saw it in a dream. They know that they lost the battle that day. You are going to say, "I recover this particular thing," and you believe; it is finished, and Jesus blesses you. If you were looking for something you could not find—even if it was simply the path you were searching for—and you woke up without finding it, you are going to say, "I make a way, and I put an end to confusion!"

Say:

- I make a way, even if it is through a dense forest! I make a way, even if it is through the waters of the earth! If it is trapped in ice, I make a way and come out of confusion! I make a way and come out of confusion! (Continue praying.)
- I snatch my marriage! I snatch my engagement! (Continue praying.)
- In the name of Jesus Christ, I snatch my health! I strike my enemies and cut them to pieces! I proclaim my victory! (Continue praying.)

In the name of Jesus Christ, we break open the graves! We snatch everything that has been stolen and hidden in cemeteries and in graves. We break everything! We want no money, no possession that comes from the enemy! It is our blessings that we snatch! We enrich our brothers and sisters! Let everyone recover their inheritance! We snatch everything that belongs to us! (Continue praying.)

Remain calm.

Let us break the yoke of poverty!

- Evil spirit, begone! In the name of Jesus, we want nothing from the enemy, and we will leave nothing that belongs to us in the hands of the wicked! It is our inheritance! Our Father gave it to us! No one has the right to snatch it away or steal it! demon, begone! No one has the right to steal what belongs to us! No one—in Hades, in the heavenly places, on the earth, or under the earth—has the right to take our blessing from us! (Continue praying.)

In the name of Jesus, no one has the right to use my picture to practice witchcraft against me! I judge every such practice! I drive out all those who have done this in my life! I destroy the power that enabled them to do it! Let no one touch my picture!

Remain calm.

- Say:
  - In the name of Jesus, if an object of bewitchment has been placed in someone's body, if cuts were made in their skin and powder was inserted into them, becoming an open door for the enemy in their life, then in the name of Jesus, we open that wound, we wash it in the blood of Jesus! We remove every element that has kept that door open, and we sanctify you through the blood of Jesus! We tear down the throne that had been established, and we drive out every enemy! We cast out every sickness connected with this practice! (Let us pray in tongues.)
  - If someone spat into a meal and gave it to a person to eat so that they would come under a spell, we immerse you in the blood of Jesus! We wash you in the blood of Jesus! We remove the defilement caused by that spit!

- If a witch doctor said he wanted to bless you and spat on your face, and from that day forward it has no longer been your true face that people perceive, we immerse you in the blood of Jesus! We remove that spit! If this was done repeatedly, we destroy it as many times as it was done!

Raise your right hand and say:

- In the name of Jesus, we destroy every occult practice carried out against all our brothers and sisters! Everything that has been done in their workplaces through those involved in secret societies, we destroy it! We banish every act of bewitchment!

If anyone's name has been written on a sheet of paper to curse them, to bewitch them, or to harm them harm in any way, we erase that name and burn that paper! If it has been written on a stone, we erase the name and break the stone! If these curses have been spoken, we cancel and banish every one of those words!

Let us stand.

If you know someone who needs prayer, pray in tongues for their healing.

If you are sick, first pray for yourself, and then pray for those who are not present. If God answers the prayer of one brother or sister, we are all blessed. The things we are asking for are humanly impossible. Every prayer offered tonight, and every other prayer, is made in faith. When you said, "If something has been hidden, I take it back," you truly took it back, and it is finished!

Brother, believe. God loves faith; He honors faith.

Let us pray together! Pray in tongues!