JESUS SAYS: REPENT AND BELIEVE THE GOOD NEWS

Isaiah 61:1–3, "The Spirit of the Sovereign Lord is on me, because the Lord has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners; to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn, and provide for those who grieve in Zion, to bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, and a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair. They will be called oaks of righteousness, a planting of the Lord for the display of His splendor."

Listen carefully, dear friend. This word is a prophecy that God has given to every human being. Before Jesus was born into this world, God had already foretold his coming through the prophets. They revealed who Jesus was and the purpose of His mission. Even before his birth, the Spirit of Christ was already speaking through them. In the passage we just read, the Spirit of Jesus was proclaiming His coming, and the mission of deliverance He has been entrusted with. This mission is known as the redemption, designed to restore human's dignity and their rightful place before God, that was lost due to sin. The Bible refers to it as the Fall. Whenever anyone falls, we refer to it as a fall. Mankind has fallen and Jesus came to raise them up. Diseases, oppression, and every form of suffering that people experience in their bodies or throughout their lives are consequences of humanity's fall. Jesus came as the Healer, the Redeemer, the Restorer, and the Rebuilder. Listen to what he declares. (Read the passage again.)

Jesus declares that He comes as the Messiah to bring the Gospel, which He called good news for the poor. He came with the Gospel and calls everyone to believe it.

Mark 1:15,"The time has come, he said. The kingdom of God is near. Repent, and believe the Good News."

Jesus had promised that He would come with the Good News. He did so even before his birth. Several hundred years ago, he spoke through the prophet. Then, after He was born into this world, He began his earthly ministry faithfully, carrying out the mission for which the Father had sent him. In the Gospel of Mark, Jesus begins to proclaim His message, saying, "The time has come. The kingdom of God is near." The way into God's Kingdom has now been opened to all who are willing to enter. He then, reveals the condition for entering the Kingdom: "Repent and believe the Gospel." Now we can register those who wish to enter heaven. This is possible provided that: you repent and believe the gospel. For when you repent, you become clean and pure. From that moment on, you must learn how to walk with God and live according to His will. In the past, as soon as you woke up, your thoughts would turn to drinking, or else you would get angry thinking about everything people had said about you. When you think about how people mistreat you, you get angry and spend the whole day in anger or it can make you want to drink alcohol just to escape your troubles. Then, on your way, you fall into the hands of a bandit. He calls you his wife and exploits you for the rest of your life. That used to be your life.

Now, you have decided to follow Jesus. How then, should you live? The guidance for living this new life is found in the Gospel. That is why Jesus said that we must believe the Gospel. The Gospel is filled with God's promises. As you listen to its message, you discover what God plans to do to mankind at the end of world. This is what the Bible calls hope.

The Gospel is the message that promises eternal joy to all who believe a life with God in heaven, filled with perfect peace and everlasting happiness. This is called Eternal life. The Gospel is a message of promises. God says, "I will heal them." It is also a message of deliverance. It contains the promise of healing. Even if you are suffering from mental illness or depression, Jesus is able to heal you. He will also heal the wounds of your broken heart, the pain caused by those who have taken advantage of you.

If you had children with a man, and the moment you told him you were pregnant, he denied it saying, "Get out of here! I'm not responsible, terminate this pregnancy!" You refused to yield, and he had rejected you once, twice, and three times; today, you are completely heartbroken. You carry that pain with you when you lie down at night and when you wake up in the morning. No doctor can heal such a wound. Even your friends make fun of you. When they see you weeping, they say, *"You're crying over a man."* It hurts you. You are heartbroken. Jesus alone is able to heal you. He shed His blood so that you might be healed. He can restore you completely. One day, you too, will sing just like those who have just sung. They too, experienced heartbreak in the past. Then they encountered Jesus of Nazareth, and he healed them. When they sing, you may think they have a lot of money and cars. But you will be surprised to discover that they live very simple lives. But the joy of Jesus fills their hearts. It will happen to you. Jesus Christ came to heal the brokenhearted. He came to restore order and the principle of righteousness. Before Christ, we were wandering without direction. You are at home, someone comes in and says to you, 'Get out!', and you leave. Jesus will restore you!

Jesus is going to restore your dignity. People will respect you because the Spirit of God will be with you. Some may even call you "Pastor", because they will find that you have become very intelligent, and you are no longer a drug addict. When your relatives were making a list of the family members, your name was left out. If someone said, "Add his name," the reply would be, "That crazy man? Leave him off the list!" If there was a family gathering and you tried to join them, they would say, "Don't come here and disturb us. Get out!" And you would get away, but your story has changed. Jesus sets you free from drugs. He will set you free from cigarettes. He will deliver you from gambling, from koutoukou (local liquor) and from everything that has been destroying your life. He will turn you into a normal woman; a normal man. You will begin to make plans for your future. You will consider getting married, something you never imagined before. You could wear your trousers for a week. You had convinced yourself that marriage would never be possible for you. But from this very evening, the light of hope is shining in your heart. Jesus Christ came to heal the brokenhearted. He came to heal you. Perhaps you do not understand what it means to have a broken heart. A broken heart is the condition of someone who has become so discouraged that death seems preferable to life. If you have ever thought, "I'm completely helpless," that is what it means to have a broken heart. But Jesus came to save you. When Jesus comes, He says, "From this day forward, you are no longer slaves. I set you free!" The captives are free in Jesus. Captives are set free. Spiritual captivity is real.

Human deliverance is a reality. Those who are delivered have visions in which they see the Lord delivering them. They witness their own deliverance. This is how God works. He brings them to the riverbank and they see themselves chained in the water. God sends His angels to break those chains and set them free. Others receive visions in which the Spirit speaks to them, and afterward they experience true deliverance. They return to a normal state of consciousness because the vision takes place in a state of ecstasy. It is as if they were asleep. You too, will become a witness of your own deliverance. Pastor MENYÉ will not be the one who said it. You will be able to say, *"when we called upon the name of Jesus, I saw the earth shake, and my soul broke free from prison." If you were drinking, once you come out of prison, you can no longer drink alcohol. That is what will happen to you - true deliverance. Jesus declared: "so If the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed." (John 8:36)

If you are a prisoner, Jesus declares that you are free. But if you reject Jesus, you deserve death.

Hosea 13:9, "you are destroyed, O Israel, because you are against your helper."

In this passage, Jesus says that the thing that will destroy you—your true suffering, your true misfortune—will come because you have not received Him, you do not love Him. And what causes your ruin is that you do not love the one who can save you. You are against the one who has the power to rescue you. That is the reason why you are destroyed. You long for deliverance yet when you are told, "The Messiah sent by God is Jesus Christ." you refuse to believe. Why do you refuse Him? Because of sin. You choose to reject Him because you want to remain in your sin. You refuse Him because you are unwilling to give up your sinful life. Jesus is calling you, but you continue to resist his invitation.

God has proclaimed a year of favor, a time of forgiveness, a time when forgiveness is freely offered to all who come to Him. You must take advantage of it. Everyone comes to Jesus with their filthy garments. There is a day of judgement He is willing to cleanse all who place their trust in Him. But there is also a Day of Judgment. This world will not end as many imagine. If you reject Jesus and remain in your sin, on the day of judgment, you will be cast into the lake of fire. Even if you regularly attended church, if you continued to live in drunkenness, drug addiction, sexual immorality, pride, strife, or the practice of occultism and idolatry, you will not go to Heaven. The Lord has come to bring peace to people's hearts so that they may weep no more. He will wipe away their tears with his blood.

He will comfort the hearts of those who have suffered in this world because of injustice. He will lift you up from the ashes, from the dust, and from slavery, and He will place a crown upon your head. He lifts you up from dust and places a crown upon your head. He will anoint you, and the Holy Spirit will come upon you, fill your life, and enliven you.The Bible says: "Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice!" (Philippians 4:4) Your heart will be filled with joy. For the Kingdom of God is not about eating and drinking, but about righteousness, peace, and joy through the Holy Spirit. This is God's promise to everyone who receives Jesus Christ. Then praise will flow from your lips.

Do you want this new life, or do you want to continue in your sin? If you want to continue in your sin, you will face the consequences; you will go to the lake of fire. If I were certain that you were all wise, I would simply say, "Come, I will bless you." But I know that there are sometimes people who are not wise they do not listen when God speaks, I cannot do so. God doesn't need those who don't listen. God wants those who listen, not those who want to move straight on to prayer. God wants those who begin to pray in their hearts, because they wish to leave this world in order to serve God. These are the people God is waiting for here. That is why Jesus says: 'Whoever calls upon me will be saved.' No one is forced. Whoever accepts this, whether poor or rich, Jesus welcomes them.

Jesus is looking for people to whom He will say, "Today." Jesus wants to speak to you. He wants to tell you, "Today." But it's up to you. When you want God's blessing, don't wait for someone else to raise their hand before raising your own. His blessing will be greater than yours. Don't wait for others—seize the grace.

Warfare Prayer

WE HAVE REACHED THE LEVEL OF THE BATTLE WHERE WE MUST CONSECRATE OURSELVES TO GOD

Beloved brethren, the spirits of the dead exist; they are the source of divination. They communicate with people. When you go to a witch doctor who is possessed by the spirit of a dead, that spirit gives him information. Yesterday was the first time that the Holy Spirit led us to separate ourselves from the influence of dead children whose spirits continue to follow their mothers. That sister who lost her children was weeping as she looked at their photos; they crawled away yesterday during prayer. You cannot be happy with the spirits of the dead in your life. Misplaced affection attracts the spirits of the dead; if someone has been dead for some time, you take their clothes, look at them, touch their them and say, 'Darling, you've left me.' When you act like this, they rise from Hades, establish a connection with you, and deliverance becomes complicated. You know, this goes beyond mere connections; these are pacts, commitments, witchcraft.

A sister was being initiated into witchcraft, but those who were training her could not succeed. They were teaching her how to leave her body through spiritual practices, but she was unable to do it; she could only crawl. They said to her, "Look at this one. He is only six months old, yet he is already able to leave his body." And she would see what appeared to be a baby floating in the air. Everything must be destroyed. When sorcerers say that Hades is a person's final resting place, they are telling the truth. Pagans search for riches and qualifications in graves, and you think it's nothing. But when deliverance takes place, you hear that there were riches in the grave. What are qualifications doing in a grave? A child goes to school, gets their A-levels and their PhD, yet is unemployed and suffering; their qualifications are in a grave.

God has blessed us. When you know the truth, deliverance can come more easily. God is love, but in Deuteronomy 18, He declares that he does not want sorcerers to be found in your home. Only God knows the doors that the presence of a person involved in sorcery within a household can open against that family. What are the consequences when witchcraft is practiced in your home? God commands that there be no one among His people who practices divination or seeks to communicate with the dead. There are occult practices that claim to teach people how to call upon the dead whether it is their father, their mother, or another deceased person. In the Bible, there is a woman who called upon the spirit of Samuel. The spirit spoke and said, "This is what I was telling you..." it was not a demon speaking; it was the spirit of Samuel.

If you invoke occult laws, they produce consequences. It's like a spell. People use it to tame snakes. There are specific codes and phrases that the spellcaster uses to charm the snake—a real snake. He picks it up because he's tamed it. He is then able to handle it because he has subdued it. Someone can cast a spell on you so that you stop praying, you stop going to work; you wake up, turn in circles, and go to bed. A student can be bewitched so that it takes him six hours just to write two lines, because the sorcerers don't want him to succeed.

This is spiritual warfare. The prophet Ezekiel testified that the Spirit carried him from one place to another. The Lord can also carry your spirit and send you to Korhogo. He can bring you back to Abidjan, to the lagoon, and reveal waters spirits to you. After that, you strike in prayer, and you receive victory. Pastor Tala had just arrived in Côte d'Ivoire for his mission. We accompanied them to their mission field. During the night, I saw a woman with curly hair emerging from the lake in anger. I then says, "In the name of Jesus!" and she went back into the water. She was defending what she considered her territory. We taught the brethren that if you were born in a particular village, the enemy might tell you that you belong to him, claiming that it is unavoidable simply because you were born there.

The Bible teaches that there was a time when the earth was divided. There are certain trees that harbour certain wicked spirits. The devil said that the tree is his home. When the principalities (of the fallen angels) fell, some of them saw the rivers and claimed them as their own, saying that whatever took place there would belong to them. If you even want to wash there, they lay claim to it, saying it is their water. You know that this is wickedness. It is God who created everything.

Someone may become sick and go to a witch doctor. He may say, "Bring a sheep. We will perform certain rituals, and we will send this sickness to someone else." Then he prepares a charm and pours on the road, so that the first person who steps over it will receive the disease. If you are that person, you may suddenly become afflicted without understanding why. You may say, "I am not a sorcerer. I do not go to witch doctors. But you've stepped over a charm."

And people have been practising these things for years, before giving their lives to Jesus. So you have to drive out the spirits; if you don't cast them out, your life won't change, because the Bible says that it is not the spirit that comes first; it is the flesh that comes first. This means that you were first a sinner, and the ties are already there. And it is today that you are giving your life to Jesus, so you must wage a war to drive out the evil that has been bound to you for decades. If you understand this, you will be blessed.

Spiritual life comes after years of idolatry, and it does not come without a struggle. When the children of Israel were in Egypt, a struggle was needed for them to leave, even though God had already decided to bring them out. The struggle is hard. If you think there is no struggle, you do not know Jesus, and you do not understand Isaiah 61. When Jesus sent out his disciples, he said: 'I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions, and to overcome all the power of the enemy, and nothing will harm you', and he added: 'As the Father has sent me, so I'm sending you.' He sends us to set people free, to preach the Gospel, to drive out the spirits of the dead and to cast out demons from families. There are fields that the demons have snatched away and taken over. And on the day you go out to the field, you fall ill; you are poor; you cannot go out to the field, because demons have snatched it away from you.

You build a house, only for evil spirits to come and take it over. There was someone who started building a house in 1973, and by 2004, the house was still unfinished. Everyone who attempted to go there to work eventually died. A missionary was later assigned to that location. We went there to pray, and the war broke out. I no longer know what became of that house.

We are going to read what Brother Zach teaches about how we should pray. He received great revelation from God, and this is what we practice here:

Reading from the book: Practical Spiritual Warfare Through Prayer, Page 31

" In spiritual warfare, there are situations where someone pleads with the Father in the name of Jesus to do something. There are situations where one does not speak to the Father, but addresses the devil directly. There are also cases where one neither speaks to the Father nor commands Satan, but addresses the situation directly. For example, the Lord Jesus spoke to the sea: Silence! Be still! The sea obeyed, the wind died down, and there was calm. I wondered whether commanding the devil and the situation should also be classified as prayer. I decided that both of these, in addition to direct requests made to the Father, should all be classified as prayer, for the reason that one often moves swiftly from one to the other in spiritual warfare, just as one might move from praise to thanksgiving and to intercession in rapid succession. One might even move back and forth between them as the battle intensifies, without consciously realising that one is switching from one to the other. It is enough simply to acknowledge that one stands before God, before the devil and before a situation, and that one is at war. What matters is that victory is won!

'The crucial point in all this is that man must speak to God, to the devil and to the situation. Without those words being spoken, victory cannot be won. The Lord spoke to the devil. The Lord spoke to the sick people. The Lord commanded the demons. The Lord commanded the winds. The Lord commanded the dead. They all obeyed Him.'

Brother Zach, the founder of CMFI, taught how to engage in spiritual warfare. He teaches that we must speak to God as our Father, and this is what we do here every day. He also teaches that we must speak to the devil, to demons, and to circumstances created by demonic forces. At this level, we no longer say, "O Father, please..." but rather, "O Father, deliver us, in the name of Jesus Christ!" After that, you turn toward the enemy and say: "Satan, depart!" He teaches that we can move from one aspect of spiritual warfare to another without difficulty. What matters is that you understand there is God, there are demons, there are obstacles, and that certain situations are the outcome of spiritual oppression, Let no one prevent you from standing against the enemy.

There are religions and teachings that claim demons do not exist, that the spirits of the dead do not exist, or that demons are simply deceivers. But demons did not write the Bible God did. And God's Word teaches that the spirits of the dead exist and commands His people not to seek them or call upon them. If any such spirit stands in our way, we drive it away in the name of Jesus. We declare: "Go away, death spirit!" and they must obey. Every day, we witnessit. This is what you must remember.

We have reached a stage in the battle where, before we go any further, we must consecrate ourselves to God; we must tell Him that we love Him. Tell Him: 'Even with all my weaknesses, Lord, I love You. ' God Himself loves us, even in our weaknesses. He said in Revelation: 'Behold, because you have little strength, yet you have kept my Word, I will open before you a door that no one can shut.' He cannot abandon you. God embraces you in your poverty; it is He who will enrich you. You cannot say that you will become rich before you serve Him. Many think they will become rich before serving God. But we begin God's work; money comes into our pockets through the power of Jesus. Ignore poverty and enter into God's work. Give Him your wisdom and your intelligence.

Tell Him: 'Lord, I belong to You.' If you are married, tell Him, 'Lord, my marriage belongs to You.' If you are single, tell Him, 'My future marriage belongs to You.' If you say it properly, He may make a decision for you. He may say: 'This one is still single, but loyal and grateful; how much more so if she is blessed.' And He blesses you. Soon, you'll hear that someone wants to marry you.

Say:

- Father, I belong to You! There is nothing in me that You have not created! There is nothing today, and there will be nothing! You have everything! You are everything to me (Continue praying.)

Let us pray in tongues

Say that the Lord Jesus be lifted up! Proclaim that his people may multiply. Proclaim that his people may be blessed. Proclaim that his people may be healed of every sickness, that they may be numerous and strong, that the gates may open before God's people, and that their hands may prosper. By blessing them, you bless yourself. Pray that those who cannot conceive may bear them, that those who are sick may be healed, that the poor may become rich and their enemies may withdraw and fall, that their enemies may never rise again, that God's heavens may be opened above their heads, and that the mountains may move before them.

Raise your right hand and say:

- With one accord, we raise our hands to overturn the plans of the wicked, to scatter their plots, to destroy their schemes, to scatter their gatherings, to overthrow and destroy their thrones! (Continue praying.)

In the name of Jesus, we judge the spirits of the dead! We judge the work of the spirits of the dead, at work in people's lives and in families, and we cast them out! All the dead, in Hades, each to their own place, until Jesus returns! Depart! We snatch everything you have stolen! We break the ties of affection! We scatter the gatherings! (Continue praying.)

- Cast out of your life all the spirits of the dead that you often see in your dreams. Command them to depart.
- In the name of Jesus, I do not just snatch my qualifications. I snatch the whole family, everything that the spirits of the dead have snatched from the whole family! I stand before the Lord Jesus, to snatch all! We snatch health! We snatch wisdom! We deliver the drunkards! We command that the drunkards be delivered! Let the children who are drug addicts be delivered! We dip you in the blood of Jesus! We set young people who are drug addicts free! Young man, you are set free from drugs!
- In the name of Jesus, let depression be judged! Spirit of depression, be gone! Spirit of madness, be gone! Depart! In the name of Jesus Christ, we set free all those suffering from depression or madness! In the name of Jesus, you are set free! (Continue to pray)
- Spirit of madness, come out and be gone! Spirit of depression, come out and be gone! (Continue praying)

Let us pray in tongues!

Spirit of madness, go away! Come out and go away!

Some people do not realize they are suffering from depression, because before full-blown depression, there are what are known as depressive episodes. These can last a few minutes. You act as if you've lost your mind. It can last a whole day, during which you believe that people don't love you. A voice tells you: 'Stay in your room. Don't go out.' You hear voices. They suggest behaviours that aren't normal.

A sister said that she was doing the laundry and a voice told her: 'Put your feet in the bucket.' Imagine a grown-up person washing clothes in a bucket with her feet in it. That suggests that madness is not far off. Sometimes, shame is a symptom of depression. One sister told me, 'I smell bad.' So she was avoiding people; she thought she smelled really bad. The demons of depression can deceive you by telling you that your head is big. A voice tells you, 'You must hide your head.' We call these depressive states. They develop. Afterwards, you stop eating and lose weight, you have a lot of saliva in your mouth, you always have a container to spit into. I saw someone carrying a spit cup; she wasn't pregnant, but she carried a cup to spit into.

Excessive salivation is a sign of depression. If this happens to you, it is depression manifesting itself. The first step is to believe tonight that Jesus loves you. The second step is to believe that the brothren love you. And when the demons come and say to you, 'You've got a big head,' you won't argue. You'll say, 'The brethren like that. God made me well.' As soon as you answer properly, they flee. There was a sister to whom, every day, a voice would say: 'You're going to die' and she was afraid. This went on for two years. One day, the same voice said to her, 'You're going to die', and she replied, 'If I die, I'll go to heaven.' That was the end of it! The voice never came back. Depression is fueled by demons who deceive you.

Raise your hand and say:

We set free all those who are suffering from depression! May the voices they hear be silenced! Demons, you who speak to those suffering from depression, be silent and depart, in the name of Jesus Christ!

The prayers we lift up here release many blessings.

Those with the gift of vision can see. Do not limit yourself to what the eyes can see. Manifestations can drive out a hundred demons. We may deliver a hundred people a day, but in reality, the demons that flee without a word are a multitude. So, when you pray, be focused so that God may release His power. Don't say that because you haven't fallen, you haven't experienced anything. Demons leave in many ways. You may feel nauseous, spit, vomit, or feel joy. There are certain demons, which cause you to make stools, even on your clothes before leaving.

So you will say:

- If a spirit has followed me whether because of a claim, or because it says that my parents sold me to it, or that I was the one who called it I declare that I am a child of God. Jesus has sent me to destroy the works of the devil, to destroy unjust claims. Everything that God has given me belongs to me. No demon has the right to lay claim to anything. Everything God has given me belongs to me. The spirits of the dead whether from my family or any other spirits of the dead must not lay a finger on my possessions! If there is a spirit that has laid a finger on anything, let it return it now!
- In the name of Jesus, I cast out all demons hiding in my life because of false claims. I nullify everything the enemy claims. I reclaim all my blessings. To all the demons that have been following me, I command you to stop following me! I cast you out! If you have placed a ring on my finger through witchcraft, I tear it off and throw it into the fire!
- In the name of Jesus, if I have been made to wear a wedding gown of witchcraft, I burn that gown! Everything that does not come from God, I uproot and burn it, for it is written that every plant, which my Heavenly Father has not planted, will be uprooted! I uproot and remove from my life everything that does not come from Almighty God! I uproot, I cut down, I snatch!

- In the name of Jesus, we judge serpentine spirits that come from water worship, masks and divination; all serpentine spirits, the small and the large serpents, the python. Even if it is a many-headed serpent, we shall cut it to pieces! May the army of the wicked be overthrown! In the name of Jesus, depart! Spirits husbands, wicked spirits, depart! Spirits of death depart, in the name of Jesus
- In the name of Jesus, you who are called 'genies', we cast you out! We condemn what is called a 'genie'. Leave! Depart from our families! You shall no longer be worshipped!
- In the name of Jesus, we tear up the covenants, we break the pacts! We set the slaves free! We cast out every spirit that refuses to leave; we break the resistance!
- In the name of Jesus, we judge the coalitions; we scatter all support and all gatherings, and we command every demonic power to leave:

We send fire, even into the forests, into the sacred forests, into the mountains, into the trees, into the roots of the trees and into the tree trunks. We send God's judgement into the secret chambers and into the huts that no one can open!

Place your hands on your head and say:

- In the name of Jesus, if there is anyone suffering from an illness inflicted by a human being through witchcraft, an illness stemming from the occult or witchcraft, we cast this illness out! Illness arising from sacrifices of money or birds, we cast you out of this body! Whatever your name may be, if you are an illness, be gone! And the demon who has remained to fuel this illness, we bind you and cast you into the abyss!

Raise your hand and say:

- If the resistance is in the graves, we will break open those graves! If it is in the coffins, we will smash those coffins! If the resistance is in the huts or in the dungeons, we will break down those huts and dungeons! And we say: 'Captives, come out!' Jesus sets you free! Jesus came to set the captives free! To all those suffering from headaches caused by witchcraft, we declare that you are free!

Say:

- I declare that Jesus has separated me from my village (say the name of your village). He has made me his brother, his co-heir. Jesus has made me his co-heir; I no longer belong to my village. All the demons and principalities that resist me because I was born in this village are mistaken! Jesus' act has destroyed everything! Everything he has destroyed remains destroyed! Everything he has built remains built! I am a new creation! I am called to carry out God's decrees! I am part of the chosen people. Demon, begone!

For some, the enemy resists because you have given them money. You have given them things they still possess. They want to resist because they gave you things they asked you to put to your loins; you took them and put them. Even though you threw them away afterwards, they cling to you, saying they had given them to you.

Say:

- In the name of Jesus, for anyone who is followed by wicked spirits because of things given or received from witch doctors and fetishists, we burn these things spiritually. We burn them and drive out the demons that are following us because of these things!

- In the name of Jesus, everything I have received that serves as a support for resistance, I burn it! Everything I have received, or that has been given to which I have taken and me, that serves as a support for resistance, we burn it!
- And you, demon who pursues people because of these things the money received, the bark received we burn them! Begone! We destroy the place where you have gone to hide!
- If a spirit has followed you because you saw the nakedness of a madman, and you rejoiced, saying it was nothing, let that tie be broken!
- If there is resistance in your life because of a relationship with a witch friend, and he bewitches you because, according to them, bewitching you means he loves you.

Say:

- I break all ties of friendship with sorcerers! I break all the evil ties coming from this friendship, and I cast out all the human spirits who have followed me because of this relationship!
- If a prophet has gone to wash you in the sea and has bewitched you, we declare that you are free! All those who have been taken to the seashore by diviners who claim to work for God, you are set free!
- If there is anyone who finds himself or herself spiritually in what the Bible calls the valley of the shadow of death; they are amongst the living, but spiritually they are in Hades, and they no longer fear death their heart longs for death we bring you back! We bring you out; we take hold of you and snatch you from this valley! We proclaim that you will live! You are happy when you get sick,. In the past, you feared death, but now you find it pleasant. Come back!

If there is a spirit of an ancestor, a parent or a grandparent that has possessed someone, and it wants to stay and dwell within you, or if there is a spirit that has possessed you, we cast it out! You have no right to do that. We command you to leave!

If there is a sister who has a spiritual baby and she is aware that this baby is blocking her true children to come, say:

- You, spiritual baby who prevents true births, we tear you out, we separate you from her, we drive you out of her life! We open the door to the children! We open the door to true children! Spiritual baby, go away!
