Evangelistic Message

EVERY INIQUITY SHUTS THE MOUTH REPENT AND CRY OUT TO GOD!

Psalm 107:1-9: "Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever. Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom He has redeemed from the hand of the enemy, and gathered out of the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the sea. They wandered in the wilderness in a desolate way; they found no city to dwell in. Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them. Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble, and He delivered them out of their distresses. He led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city for a dwelling place. Oh, that they would give thanks to the LORD for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men! For He satisfies the longing soul, and fills the hungry soul with goodness."

This portion of Holy Scripture speaks about people who were wandering in the wilderness. They walked about without a place of rest. They had no city to dwell in. This is the condition of some people. They have no home; they live in other people's homes. They may stay there for two years, after which they are driven away and move somewhere else. They have no place of rest. If they go back to their village, they have no plantations and no property. They suffer. They are hungry and thirsty. To eat, they have to beg. Then the Lord came. Before He came, what did they do? (Psalm 107:6) In this misery, suffering and humiliation, they cried out to God. God delivered them from their distresses and led them by the right way, so that they might reach a city where they could live. God will do this in your life.

They wandered in the wilderness; there was no dwelling place. They lived under the enemy's control. The enemies could not be seen physically; the matter was spiritual. A wandering life is a work of demons. You go to one place and nothing works; you go somewhere else and nothing works—the demon is in your life. You need a Deliverer to rescue you from the enemy's hands and lead you to a habitable place where you will flourish. Jesus does this. The Word of God tells you to praise God, for He is very good. Do not murmur against God, make up stories, blaspheme, or say, "God has abandoned me. What has God even done for me after all these years of prayer?" Be careful!

This passage does not tell us how long their battle lasted. The Holy Spirit concealed it. Perhaps they fought for only one minute, saying, "Lord, deliver us!" Perhaps they prayed for a year, crying out every day. Perhaps some of them were very young and later became adults while still in that situation. They saw their parents crying out to God. Then He arose and answered them. The Holy Spirit says, "Praise God, for He is good, and His mercy endures forever." The Holy Spirit means that you too can praise God in the face of your situation. Instead of allowing fear to overwhelm you, cry out to God. Do not allow anguish to crush you; cry out to God, and He will lead you to a city where you can live. He will lead you to a place where you will drink water and eat. Literally, this refers to food and bread. You will be able to select your meals, which was not previously possible. The next portion of the Psalm speaks about another group of people.

Psalm 107:10-16: "Those who sat in darkness and in the shadow of death, bound in affliction and irons—because they rebelled against the words of God, and despised the counsel of the Most High, therefore He brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was none to help. Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble, and He saved them out of their distresses. He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and broke their chains in pieces. Oh, that they would give thanks to the LORD for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men! For He has broken the gates of bronze, and cut the bars of iron in two."

What was the sin of this group of people? They rejected the Word of God; they rejected the prophets, visions, teachers, Bible teachers and pastors. They wanted to live as they pleased, and God struck them with pain. He broke them, humbled them and brought them low. He dealt with them in such a way that they would see that the hand of God is truly the hand of God. They had despised God's counsel, and He made them suffer.

Some people suffer because they despised good counsel. Their father spoke and their mother spoke, but to no avail. They listen only to petty thugs. Some children roam the streets all day trying to fend for themselves. They run away from home; they run away from their father and mother. Afterwards, they eat from rubbish bins. God has spoken to some people, but they refused to listen and obey. When they have plans and the Holy Spirit tries to tell them to stop, they refuse. When they want to marry, no one can stop them. What does God do? He humbles them through suffering. What must be noted here is that the people to whom God spoke, but who refused to listen, ended up in chains. This means that principalities chain and imprison people who refuse to obey God, because there are two wills: the will of God and the will of the devil. When a person rejects the will of God, they automatically place themselves under the will of the devil. You cannot be neutral in this world. Either God leads you or the devil leads you. You cannot drink "koutoukou," a local distilled alcoholic drink, and love God at the same time. You cannot love drugs and love God at the same time. When God tells you, "Stop smoking or taking drugs," and you say yes, the devil flees. If you say no, God leaves you and the devil puts you in chains. In their distress, they cried out to the LORD, and He brought them out of death and the abode of the dead, because they were in darkness, in the abode of the dead. When you are there, you do not know that you are in a distant place; you think you are living like everyone else. But the spiritual reality is that such a person is chained. They have no peace; they are in darkness, captive in misery and chains. (Psalm 107:10) What was their sin? They despised the Words of the Most High and rejected them. But in their distress, they cried out to the LORD, and He broke their chains. He brought them out of darkness. Dear friend, God is good, God is good, God is good.

Even today, as you listen, you can already begin to pray. You can begin to say to God, "Forgive me; I have been a little fool. I abandoned Your counsel, and today I find myself with chains around my neck and feet. I am imprisoned in darkness; death surrounds me, and I cannot see the light."

The Word promises you that if you cry out in this way, God will act, because He is not wicked. He said, "Call upon Me in the day of trouble, and I will answer you." He will incline His ear, listen to your cry and change your condition. He is our God, our Father and our Counsellor. He loves us and is faithful.

> Psalm 107:17-22, "Fools, because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, were afflicted. Their soul abhorred all manner of food, and they drew near to the gates of death. Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble, and He saved them out of their distresses. He sent His word and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions. Oh, that they would give thanks to the LORD for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men! Let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare His works with rejoicing."

The Word of God declares that the fool says there is no God; he does whatever he wants and practises sin. He says that God does not exist. Sin makes a person miserable and poor. Sin can make you lose all your friends—all your true friends. Sin can send you to prison. Sin can make you spend all your money on immorality and gambling. Sin makes people miserable and brings suffering. Sin has consequences: tears and pain. In their condition, they cried out to God, and He delivered them from their distress. People who had refused to believe in God, who had said that God did not exist and had told themselves, "Let us go and sin," returned to God weary and miserable, and God forgave their sin. He did not merely forgive them; He sent His Word and spoke to them. When God wants to perform a miracle in a person's life, He begins by speaking to them, because His Word is a power that can create and remove the evils of life. Today, this Word will establish the Kingdom of God in your life. The Bible says that He sent His Word and healed them. If you tell someone, "Listen to what God is telling you, and you will be delivered," that person may doubt. But if God had a large stick, the person might believe that God was going to fight and strike. God will not come with a piece of iron or a sword; He will heal you by speaking to you. He will cause you to accept what you had rejected. When you receive the Word of God, you receive His life. It is written, "Receive with meekness the implanted Word." You must receive the Word of God with faith. If you receive it with faith, you will be delivered, because the Word comes to deliver you. If you believe, deliverance takes place.

God is merciful. You must say one sentence: "Lord, You are good; You are merciful." Do not be ungrateful. When God works in your life, you must celebrate Him.

> Psalm 107:23-32, "Those who go down to the sea in ships, who do business on great waters, they see the works of the LORD, and His wonders in the deep. For He commands and raises the stormy wind, which lifts up the waves of the sea. They mount up to the heavens; they go down again to the depths; their soul melts because of trouble. They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wits' end. Then they cry out to the LORD in their trouble, and He brings them out of their distresses. He calms the storm, so that its waves are still. Then they are glad because they are quiet; so He guides them to their desired haven. Oh, that they would give thanks to the LORD for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men! Let them exalt Him also in the assembly of the people, and praise Him in the company of the elders."

This Bible passage speaks about highly intelligent and experienced sailors. I am certain that they were proud. It is not mentioned here, but what God did makes us think that these men were proud. They believed that they had mastered navigation, that they were well trained and did not need God. God showed them these things in the depths of the sea. He said to the sea, "Blow and frighten these men," and the sea began to obey; a wind arose. They began to tremble. God wanted to show them that there is Someone higher than all of them—Someone who created the sea, the wind, the sun and the stars. When the ship is violently shaken, you fall down and reveal your true self. I am sure that at some point they gathered their documents to review certain theories, but nothing worked. Many people are in this situation. They thought they had mastered the situation. They named the school where they had been trained. They said, "I held such-and-such a rank. I was top of my class." You see, when our young people give their examination averages, they say, "I passed my exam with so many points." The Lord will deal with them before the waves threaten them. Since they are our children, we will tell them, "Remain calm."

There is a kind of foolishness behind knowledge. The Word of God says that knowledge puffs people up. When this happens, God creates a situation that will make you sit in humility forever. They too laid aside their expertise, became worshippers and cried out to God.

God can do this in your life. He says, "Be still!" and the sea becomes still; there is absolute calm. There are things God allowed to disturb you because He does not like pride. When you understand this, He speaks and calm returns. He Himself took the helm and piloted the ship to the desired haven. He is taking you there; you must arrive. He led them to their desired haven. He did not change their desire. God will give you what you want, because the Word says, "The LORD fulfils the desire of those who fear Him."

God is not foolish, so that when you want to drink water He would say, "No!" He gives you what you want. If you want to marry a beautiful young woman, He will give her to you; but do not run away from Him, saying that He wants to impose a woman on you. He does not work that way. If you want an intelligent young man, He will give you an intelligent husband whom you love. Do not run away from God, saying, "If I ask Him, He will impose a lazy man on me." He led them to their desired haven. It is said of the person whose heart is steadfast that the Lord gives them what they desire. You will be blessed!

Now God is going to speak to you about Himself. He says, "My friend, My daughter, I turn rivers into a wilderness." God can make a sea disappear, and when He does, only sand remains. After considering these four pictures, we understand that a fertile country can become a desert and that God can turn a wilderness into a pool of water. In a place where there was not a single drop of water, God can create a lake. Dried-up lives will be restored to freshness; this is His work. He takes the hungry and says, "Live here and eat freely." God is able to do this.

In testimonies, people sometimes say, "I suffered for twenty years." That is the wilderness! They continue, "Then I gave my life to Jesus, and the disease disappeared!" You will experience it. It is God who teaches these things; He does not hide. In the world, some people prefer to hide; they run away from other people's problems. As soon as they have a little money, they begin to hide. But God says, "Come and see Me. This is who I am; this is what I can do for everyone." Even in a forest, God can create a city. With Jesus, you will find yourself living in a house you built without knowing how you managed to build it. The work of your hands will be blessed, your field will be blessed and your business will prosper. It will come to pass! If testimonies were requested now, we would see that some people are already blessed. Some are already living in their own homes. Some are planning how to buy a car, whereas they did not even know how to buy a bicycle. When people talk about cars, such a person now understands the language of cars—and people like this are present here. The Word says that those who have already tasted that God is good must praise Him.

Say:

- Thank You, Lord! You saved me! You blessed me! You delivered me from chains! You broke the chains! You shattered the prisons! You broke the iron bars and the bronze chains! You commanded the wind and the sea! You spoke to the womb! You spoke to the sperm cells!

This is what will happen. If you have no sperm cells, God will give them life. You must take hold of God as He is. Do not be afraid; it was by faith that God commanded the prophet to speak. It is God Himself who decided to tell us that He can bring water out of the wilderness. Do as Jacob did: take hold of Him and say, "Lord, here is the wilderness; bring forth water," and He knows that you are not a bandit. He knows that you are in distress. He knows that you are not restraining Him through violence or arrogance. You take hold of Him because your suffering is too great. Jacob said, "Lord, do You want me to let You go and remain alone with this pain?" This is how one persistently pleads with God. "Who can deliver me from this distress?" Say to God, "Today I have the grace of meeting You on my way."

Brothren, we will be many. Go back and review your objectives; do not do it merely intellectually. Go and prophesy growth. The five-year goal will be accomplished, together with all our intermediate goals.

What can prevent you from praying? It is sin; every iniquity shuts the mouth. If you are a guest, take this verse seriously. Every iniquity shuts the mouth. Do you want your mouth to be closed? If you want your mouth to be open, if you want to be able to speak to God, you must abandon sin. Sin will block your way. Sin stops the mouth. Shortly, we are going to put these words into practice. We will pray; we will cry out to God. Each person will show God their distress. Each person will say to God, "This is what is making me tremble right now," and God will act. Show the Lord the thing that is making you tremble. He will listen to you. But if you are a guest, you must confess your sin and abandon it.

> Isaiah 59:1, "Behold, the LORD's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; nor His ear heavy, that it cannot hear."*

No, the LORD's hand is not too short to save. Even if you are at the bottom of the abyss, He can stretch out His hand, take hold of you and bring you out of the abyss. He hears; He is not deaf. What you tell Him tonight will enter His ear, and He will hear what is in the depths of your heart. He will touch your anguish and answer you.

Do not cling to your sin. Even if you are weak, abandon your sin. Even if your whole being wants to smoke, even if every cell in your body demands a cigarette, say, "I will no longer smoke." You will see what happens. Even if your whole being wants to commit immorality, say, "No, I give my life to Jesus." You will see order enter your life. Violent storms will be calmed by a single word from His mouth. He said to the sea, "Be still!" One command, and calm returned. If you are a guest who wants to abandon sin and begin a right relationship with God, raise your hand!

Spiritual Warfare Prayer

GOD IS LOOKING FOR AN INTERCESSOR IN FAMILIES

> Ezekiel 22:30-31, "So I sought for a man among them who would build a wall and stand in the gap before Me on behalf of the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found no one. Therefore, I have poured out My indignation on them; I have consumed them with the fire of My wrath; and I have recompensed their deeds on their own heads, says the Lord GOD".

God says that when He observes families and sees their deeds, He begins to look for people who intercede. He looks and sees no one. He says, "Since there is no one, I will destroy you." This is when premature deaths, abject poverty and serious hereditary diseases occur. When God finds no intercessors, He allows His anger to be manifested. He abandons families to idols and gives them over to abominations. He says, "Since you want to sin, go ahead and sin." He says that He gave them over to the desires of their hearts. But if He finds an intercessor, He forgives and sends rain and blessing.

Brother, we are not trainees.

Say:

- I proclaim that I am not a trainee! I am an intercessor! People like me are the ones God is looking for. My soul, strengthen yourself; I am an intercessor! I reject the lie of the flesh! I reject the lie of the flesh that wants to make me believe that I am nothing, that I can do nothing and that God does not know me! I declare that God knows me! I am in His Son Jesus. The blood of redemption has washed me! The blood of justification has justified me; the blood of sanctification has set me apart. I can pray; I can turn away the anger of God; I can release riches. Satan, you cannot deceive me!

Stand up and say:

- God, answer me!
- We are guilty, my parents and I. Since the time of the patriarchs, we have worshipped trees, rocks, fish and animals, and we were proud to have the gorilla and the python as our gods before Your face—You, the Creator, the Almighty God, exalted in dignity. We saw Your works in nature: the splendour of the sun, the moon, the stars, the firmament, the rivers, the oceans and the buffaloes. Instead of worshipping You, we knelt before Your creation. In Your justice, You abandoned us! You are a just God; You do nothing out of resentment. You act in justice; You even look for an intercessor. In the midst of our rebellion, You desire to save us! Save us, Lord! (Continue speaking.)

- Father, we drove You away through our deeds! We drove You away through our abominations and our idolatries. We are bearing the consequences: diseases are present in our lives, death is present, poverty is present and infirmities are present to remind us of Your anger. Forgive us. Forgive the corruption of some people; forgive the worship of dragons. (Mention the objects of worship in your family.)
- Father, forgive our wickedness and deliver us from the consequences! O Jesus, send us Your Holy Spirit! (Continue praying.)
- Father, deliver us from oppression! O Father, deliver us from diseases! O Father, deliver us from poverty that is a consequence of our sins! O Father, forgive and deliver us!
- Look, O Father, at the principalities that rule over our families: the water spirits, spirits of the abysses, forest spirits and mountain spirits that are present in our lives to oppress and destroy! Forgive us for this! (Continue asking for forgiveness; ask Him to drive out the spirits.)
- Father, drive them away from us! Give us deliverance! Command our deliverance! Command our healing! Command our liberation! Let the chains be broken! Wherever there are strongholds, let them be overthrown! Wherever there are high places, let them be overthrown! O Father, act! Let every hereditary disease be broken! Let hereditary poverty be broken! O Father, act to set us free! O Father, act to save! You said that You are looking for an intercessor; here we are, Lord! Answer us!
- Hold your brother's hand and say:
- Father, answer us! (Pray in tongues.)
- Send confusion into the camp of the oppressors, among those who think that You have abandoned us forever! O Father, deliver us from our anguish! O Father, deliver us from our fears! O Father, deliver us from our exhaustion! (Continue praying.)

Father, command genuine marriages! O Father, command miraculous conceptions! O Father, deliver us from every oppression! O Father, deliver us from every disgrace! O Father, act for the little ones and act for the great! O Father, act for the young and act for the elderly! O Father, act for the whole family! O Father, act!

If God speaks to you, write down what He tells you. If He says, "I bless you," believe Him; you are not a trainee! If you die now, God will judge you. He will not judge you as He would judge a trainee. He will judge you as someone who is already working. When God speaks to you, if you do not believe Him, whom will you believe? You are a child of God; if your Father speaks to you, believe Him! You are not a trainee; you are not learning how to love Him. You already love Him. If you have come this far, that is faith. When the demon sees that you are becoming serious, it works to deceive you. It tells you that you are not yet mature. God only wants you to believe.

- If you are sick, tell Him, "I am sick." Do as Jacob did; say to Him:
- If I let You go tonight, who will bless me? Who will break this prison? Lord, I will not let You go; destroy this prison! Destroy this demonic hut!
- Some people have seen that they are under seven tombs. If you are in such a condition, if Jesus does not come to deliver you, who will break those seven tombs?

Do not let Him go. Say that He is your Father. Say:

- Come to our aid!

Say to Him:

- A python that has existed for centuries—who can cut off its head except You, O LORD? O LORD, who could kill Goliath except You? David said that it was by Your strength that he would cut off Goliath's head, and You blessed him; David killed Goliath and cut off his head! (Pray in tongues.)

If you have not received the gift of speaking in tongues, receive it and speak now! It is a gift from God!

Say:

- Father, give commands, and let them be carried out! O Father, command deliverance! O Father, come and reign over us! Out with the idols, out with the demons, out with the spirits of the dead, out with death itself, out with the water spirits, out with the dragons, out with the gorillas, out with the masks, out with all these demons, out with all these armies of demons—out! (Continue praying.)
- Leave! Come out of my family! We reject you! We refuse to follow the way of our ancestors who worshipped you! We condemn you! We drive you out of the family! We proclaim that Jesus of Nazareth is Lord and King. He is the One who is worthy to reign! He is the One who shed His blood! You are spirits of wickedness, falsehood and deception! Leave! Take your poverty with you! Take your diseases with you! Leave!
- In the name of Jesus, we destroy the power you accumulated after many years of idolatry! We break this idolatry! We exalt the King of kings—Jesus! You, death, spirits of death, mask spirits, water spirits, skull spirits and spirits behind the worship of the dead, we drive you out! We overthrow every idol and drive out the demons behind all these forms of worship! All of you, leave! Jesus reigns; He is the Lord of lords; He is the true God! He is compassionate! He is slow to anger and rich in goodness!
- Wicked spirit, go away! All demons behind the curse of idolatry—wicked spirits—whether you are a fallen angel or a human spirit, if you belong to the army of idolatry, if you played a role in our family and continue your work in my life day and night, you are struck down! I drive you out of my life! Wicked spirit behind the curse of idolatry, you are thrown to the ground and stripped off your power! Even if you were worshipped for centuries, we break that hold! Even if you were worshipped by women or men, go away! Your reign is over! (Continue praying.)

All spirits behind the worship of thunder, we drive you out! All spirits behind the worship of the dragon, we drive you out! All spirits behind the worship of the leopard, we drive you out!

Say:

- Wicked spirit, even if you left the earth and went into the air, the anger of God and the fire of God reach you! Wicked spirit, even if you left the earth and entered the water, the anger of God reaches you! Wicked spirit, even if you left the village and went into the forest, the anger of God strikes you! Wicked spirit, even if you left the earth and entered the belly of another spirit, the anger of God strikes you! Wicked spirit, even if you get into a demonic vehicle, we destroy that vehicle! We break your resistance!

Gaze upon the throne of justice. If the Lord speaks to you, listen. These are very important moments. The Lord can come down and operate on someone. He can take the disease and throw it into the abyss.

Raise your right hand and say:

- In the name of Jesus, we destroy every resistance built up through thousands of years of worship! We destroy every resistance built up through thousands of years of idolatry; we break this wall!
- In the name of Jesus, if there is a brother in a prison—a prison guarded by unclean spirits—if there is a brother in a prison, in a bunker or a basement, we break that prison! We break that prison!
- If anyone is sitting in the darkness of the shadow of death and the spirits of the dead are already surrounding them, we bring you out of there, in the name of Jesus!
- In the name of Jesus, if anyone has already drawn near to death, sees the signs in their life and has accepted the idea of dying—even saying, "If I die, it does not matter"—we close the road to death! We bring you back to life!
- In the name of Jesus, if anyone among us has eaten spiritual poison that is causing chronic stomach pain, in the name of Jesus, we proclaim divine healing and we heal you!
- In the name of Jesus, if anyone has eaten spiritual poison, we banish that poison! We declare your total healing!
- In the name of Jesus, if anyone ate human flesh in a dream and that flesh passed through their throat, went down into their stomach and caused chest pain, wicked spirit, go away!

In the name of Jesus, we rise up against every demon that reacts violently because it knows that we are driving it out forever—go away!

We are going to pray in tongues.

Place your hand where you feel pain, or place your hand on your head, and say:

- Disease, come out and go away! Leave this body; come out and go away, whatever your name, whatever your age and whoever sent you!
- If you consulted a witch doctor who told you to keep a secret and you obeyed, renounce it! If you renounce it, his spirit will withdraw. Say:

I will no longer keep this secret!

The bonds of secrecy exist. When a fetish priest tells you, "Do not look behind you," if you obey, you become his slave.

Say:

- In the name of Jesus, we loose everyone who made an ungodly commitment to keep a secret! We cut that secret into pieces and loose your soul!

Raise your right hand and say:

- If anyone here has a wound that does not heal—a wound they acquired through witchcraft or that was inflicted on them through witchcraft—we declare that you are healed! We uproot the false leg and declare your healing! We throw away the false leg that was given to you!
