Boniface MENYE

COMMENT FOLLOWING A DELIVERANCE TESTIMONY

The devil cannot give children to any human being. Children are ordained by God Himself and are present in the bodies of women and men. However, occult practices can block childbirth, close the fallopian tubes, or destroy the uterus. So, when a woman seeking to become a mother consults a witch doctor or fetish priest, he asks her for something that will be offered to the demons that have blocked her fallopian tubes. The witch doctor may say to the demons, for example: "Here is a chicken, some oil and rice. Accept this offering and release this woman's fallopian tubes so that she may conceive." When this practice takes place within the context of idolatry, the spirits comply and the fallopian tubes remain open. The woman conceives, and this gives the impression that the devil has given her the child. This is how the devil works to steal God's glory and the souls of men.

In villages, people sometimes say, "Do not eat papaya." If you hide and eat it, nothing happens. But if you eat it openly and a sorcerer sees you, he casts a spell on you to give the impression that you were struck because you disregarded the taboo or totem. When the sorcerer does not see you, you have no problem. You could spend your whole life hiding to eat papaya. But the moment the sorcerer sees you, he says, "If we let this go, people will despise us."

We delivered a woman who told us that she belonged to a group of women called komians (traditional fetish dancers in Côte d'Ivoire). One stage of their initiation involved going to the cemetery at midnight. She told us that when it was their turn, they set out but never reached the cemetery. They later told them: "We never actually reach the cemetery. However, everyone believes that we do. It is a secret. Do not tell anyone that we never reached the cemetery." This secret is part of the witchcraft. It is intended to keep them bound by a lie. Her deliverance was difficult, but the Holy Spirit revealed to me that she had a secret. So I asked her, "Do you have a secret?" She said yes and told me what I have just recounted. This does not mean that they could not have reached the cemetery. The devil's plan was to lie and keep people bound by lies.

The devil does not give children. Even in Europe, there is a spirit called "the god of the harvest." When people cultivate their fields, animals such as cane rats or hedgehogs may eat and destroy everything. They then establish a form of worship for the god of the harvest. When they practise this witchcraft, the animals leave their fields alone and they harvest their crops. In reality, it was not "the god of the harvest" that produced the crops. God had already provided the harvest, but the demon had blocked the way so that the farmers would worship it.

I worked with a voodoo priest on his deliverance. He told me that in voodoo there are demons called "spirits of violence." He was one of the priests who sent these spirits against people. When these spirits take hold of you, you become depressed or a violent mad person. These sick people are brought to these priests, but the priests do not deliver them. Instead, they introduce into their lives a demon that is stronger than the spirit of violence. That demon then dominates the spirit of violence and madness. When you look closely at these supposedly "delivered" people, they seem bewitched. Their gaze is fixed and they appear weighed down because a spirit has been placed upon them to subdue the spirit of violence. Only Jesus Christ delivers!

Evangelistic and Warfare Message

WITH JESUS, THERE IS NO FATALISM; YOUR MIRACLE IS TO BELIEVE THAT YOU CAN TAKE BACK EVERYTHING THAT WAS STOLEN FROM YOU

> Exodus 3:1-7: "Moses was tending the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian, and he led the flock to the far side of the desert and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the Lord appeared to him in flames of fire from within a bush. Moses saw that though the bush was on fire it did not burn up. So Moses thought, 'I will go over and see this strange sight-why the bush does not burn up.' When the Lord saw that he had gone over to look, God called to him from within the bush, 'Moses! Moses!' And Moses said, 'Here I am.' 'Do not come any closer,' God said. 'Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground.' Then he said, 'I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.' At this, Moses hid his face, because he was afraid to look at God. The Lord said, 'I have indeed seen the misery of my people in Egypt. I have heard them crying out because of their slave drivers, and I am concerned about their suffering."
> This passage can build us up and equip us to fight effectively this evening. God had seen the suffering of the people of Israel. They were mistreated by Pharaoh and by the Egyptian people, and they were suffering. God had already foretold this suffering in Genesis 15:13–15: "Then the Lord said to him, 'Know for certain that your descendants will be strangers in a country not their own, and they will be enslaved and mistreated four hundred years. But I will punish the nation they serve as slaves, and afterward they will come out with great possessions. You, however, will go to your fathers in peace and be buried at a good old age.'"

God had told Abraham that he would bless him and give him countless children, but he had made it clear that they would be slaves in a land unknown to them. He promised not to abandon them, to judge the people who would rule over them, to deliver his children, and to ensure that when they left that country, they would leave with great wealth. Brethren, redemption is God's own plan. In God's plan, those who are redeemed and saved do not leave empty-handed. If, for example, you ask God for healing, do so as a child of God. These are things God has already provided for. He declared: "I will heal them. I will deliver them." When you ask God for wealth, deliverance, or healing, you are not sinning. God promised them!

Say:

- I proclaim that, in God's eternal plan, every child of God must come out of the world, slavery, and Egypt with great wealth!

Unfortunately for Pharaoh, when Moses arrived in Egypt and explained God's plan to bring his people out, Pharaoh opposed it. His heart was hardened. When Moses arrived in Egypt, Pharaoh refused to obey, and God struck him, just as he had promised. He sent locusts, dust, frogs, flies... He multiplied the plagues against Egypt. The Egyptians began to suffer greatly. They told Pharaoh: "Let these people go." There is much more to this story than we can fully cover now. Let us focus on the passage that shows us how to come out with great wealth. Pharaoh saw that he was cornered and that God was against him, so he called Moses. That is where it gets interesting.

> Exodus 8:20-21: "And the Lord did this. Dense swarms of flies poured into Pharaoh's palace and into the houses of his officials, and throughout Egypt the land was ruined by the flies. Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "Go, sacrifice to your God here in the land."

The Word of God says that when God began to strike Egypt, Pharaoh knew that God's hand was against him. But instead of understanding, he resorted to trickery. Pharaoh said, "Do not leave my country. Please stay with me." What was God asking? Did God want the children of Israel to remain in Egypt? Had he commanded them to offer sacrifices to him in Egypt? God had said, "You must come out and serve me in the Promised Land." But the devil tells you, "No, stay here. You must pray within Egyptian territory." Imagine someone who accepts Jesus but still wants to continue going to the mosque. That person cannot come out of Egypt. Jesus calls you, and you say, "I am Catholic." God says, "I want you to come out and worship me in spirit and in truth." The devil says, "Do not come out. Stay here and worship your God."

> Exodus 8:26–27: "But Moses said, 'That would not be right. The sacrifices we offer the Lord our God would be detestable to the Egyptians. And if we offer sacrifices that are detestable in their eyes, will they not stone us? We must take a three-day journey into the desert to offer sacrifices to the Lord our God, as he commands us."

Moses refused; he said, "No!" because there was a trap. Moses explained that if they offered sacrifices to God in Egypt, the Egyptians would stone them because their sacrifices would be an abomination in the Egyptians' eyes. There are unbelievers who want you to remain with them, but they are not ready to repent. When you try to repent, they accuse you of being legalistic; they start insulting and persecuting you. They say you love the law and that repentance is no longer necessary. You become discouraged and ashamed of being sincere in your faith. In the end, you find yourself back among people who do the same things, and they rejoice over it. Come out! Go to the children of God.

This passage helps us understand that some people have experienced a flawed conversion. God speaks, Satan also speaks, and they do what Satan says. God says, "Come out of Egypt!" The devil says, "Don't come out!" If you believe today, you will come out. You cannot remain in darkness once God has already shown you the light. You have candles everywhere, rosaries, long prayer mats and cassocks, and you walk barefoot. Jesus has already come. He says, "Come to Me." The devil says, "Come!" Whom will you obey? The devil wants to keep you there so that you continue drinking alcohol. He knows that if you obey God, the fetishes will be burned, the alcohol poured away, and you will become normal and happy. The devil knows this.

> 2 Timothy 2:22: "Flee the evil desires of youth, and pursue righteousness, faith, love and peace, along with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart."

Once you have purified your heart, if you stay in the wrong place, conflict will ensue. When you say that something is from the devil, they will say that you are wicked. If you say, "I do not drink alcohol," they will say that you are proud. When you say, "I do not commit adultery," they will reply that you are lying and that there is not a single human being on earth who does not commit adultery. When God calls you, obey Him and seek out people who have obeyed Him, just as you have. Do not waste time. This is what the Bible says.

The first thing to do is to flee from sin. Once you have fled from sin, stop and ask God where you should go. You have fled from sin, well done. The Bible tells you, "Seek out people like yourself." Do not merely look for people or supporters. Look for those who have experienced a true conversion, just as you have. If someone used to drink alcohol and has stopped, that person should seek out others who once drank as they did but have now been delivered. Do not be deceived! People will lie to you. They will say, "Do not abandon us!" But you must leave them. You must abandon fetishes. Abandon false friends. Some people leave home in the morning and return the following day drunk and filthy. When you ask them where they were, they tell you they were with their friends.

Look at yourself! What kind of friends take pleasure in seeing you get drunk and fall into gutters? What kind of friends do not take care of their own children? When they have a little money, they drink beer while their children suffer. Their children go hungry and do not attend school. Yet every day you say, "I am with my friends." On Sunday, they say that they are going to church. What kind of church do you attend without ever changing? Do you come home drunk after church? Once you give your life to Jesus, leave such friends. Seek out people who were once drunkards, whom Jesus has delivered, and who are now putting their lives in order.

> Exodus 8:28: "Pharaoh said, 'I will let you go to offer sacrifices to the Lord your God in the desert, but you must not go very far. Now pray for me.'"

I think this was the greatest trick of all. What happened? When Pharaoh saw that God was punishing them even more severely, he called Moses and said, "I will let you go, but I ask only one thing: do not go far from me." This applies to every child of God.

A lack of consecration is one of the devil's schemes. When the devil sees that you have truly believed, that you are serious, and that he cannot stop you, what does he offer you? He offers you friendship. Satan says, "Do not go far from me!" The devil negotiates with you. He does not want you to leave. He knows that God loves you and is calling you, because God commands His people to go and serve Him and offer sacrifices to Him. If your enemy says to you, "Do not go far from me," and you obey, that is what we call a lack of consecration. You have come out of the world, taken one step, and stopped. You are still within the devil's reach. He says to you, "Do not go far from me!" You want to answer God's call, but you stop short.

Whatever God asks you to do, the devil says, "Do not refuse, but do not go too far." The devil knows that a servant cannot serve two masters. He knows that if you obey him, God will never save you.

Say:

- I declare that we will go far. We will keep walking, and we will go and offer sacrifices to God in the wilderness as we advance toward the Promised Land.
- We declare that our lives will be a pilgrimage to the Promised Land! We will never settle along the way! We will keep walking; we will live in tents until we arrive. We are determined!

Raise your right hand and say:

May the devil's counsel be rejected in every family! Let no one accept the devil's offer. He asks us not to go far from him, but we will go far from him and cling to God.

Moses refused. He said, "No, we must set out to worship God. After that, we will continue on our way. If there are wars along the way, we will fight them. If there are obstacles, we will smash them. If any people oppose our passage, we will scatter them." We are powerful in Jesus Christ.

> Exodus 10:10–11: "Pharaoh said, 'The Lord be with you if I let you go, along with your women and children! Clearly you are bent on evil. No! Have only the men go; and worship the Lord, since that's what you have been asking for.' Then Moses and Aaron were driven out of Pharaoh's presence."

God continued to strike, and Pharaoh said, "I agree. Now I propose something else. Go! I will keep the children and the women; you men, go." Brethren, it is a crime for a true man to leave his wife and children with Satan! Some people do this. They say they are believers, but their children play everywhere while they pray. They say that their children will choose their own path when they grow up. This is another way of saying, "Satan, take my children and my wife. As for me, I am going to seek God." What you must understand is that God has already rejected you. If you decide to go and pray while allowing your children to watch pornographic films, although you know what they are doing and do nothing to correct it, saying, "Leave them alone. When they grow up, they will choose for themselves," you have sinned, and you are not a Christian. If you think it is acceptable for your children to serve Satan first and later decide whether they want to follow God, you are a worker of the devil.

When you give your life to Jesus, you must take your family with you, bring your children along, and encourage your wife. You must be the pastor of your family and show them the ways of God. Your children and your wife must be encouraged to serve God. That's what you must do. Don't listen to the devil who says: "Men, go! Let the children and the wives stay behind and worship the devil." If you have done that, you have sinned. If you have let your children grow up without any moral guidance, you have sinned. Go and get them; gather them at the feet of Jesus of Nazareth.

> Exodus 10:24–26: "Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and said, 'Go, worship the Lord. Even your women and children may go with you; only leave your flocks and herds behind.' But Moses said, 'You must allow us to have sacrifices and burnt offerings to present to the Lord our God. Our livestock too must go with us; not a hoof is to be left behind. We have to use some of them in worshiping the Lord our God, and until we get there we will not know what we are to use to worship the Lord.'"

Here is the final card. Pharaoh said: "Go! Take the women and children but leave us all the sheep." God had said they would leave with great wealth. Can we accept that? Never!

Today, we are going to act in faith. If, when you came out, you left your children or your wife behind, you will take them back by faith, in the name of Jesus. If you left behind your briefcase because you thought it belonged to the world and abandoned it somewhere, or if you carried it with you and the devil snatched it from you, reach out your hand by faith and snatch it back. You will see what your life becomes. It was by faith that Joshua stopped the sun. You do not need to stop the sun.

Joshua's problem was the sun, but your problem is the briefcase. Do not say, "Lord, I stop the sun." For what purpose? You have no money, your children aren't eating, your family has problems and you cannot help. Even for God's work, you cannot give anything. Someone even has to buy your Bible for you; everything you have comes from the brethren. Or perhaps the brethren do not even know you, and you have nothing. Instead of seizing the briefcase, you say that you are looking for a staff to do what Moses did. You do not need Moses' staff. You need the brief case that remained in Egypt. You must use the means Jesus has given to recover it.

The young prophets wanted to cut down a tree, but the iron axe head fell into the water. They reported it to Elisha, who cut off a piece of wood and threw it into the place where the iron had fallen. The iron then floated to the surface. He told them to pick it up. Have you ever seen a mass of iron float on water? But you do not need that kind of miracle today.

When it comes to your possessions and your dealings, you have suffered losses. The devil strikes you and says, "Do not go far from me," and you agree. You realise that although you are a Christian, you are ignorant. You realise that you receive no revelation and do not understand what is happening to you, yet you have accepted to be far from God. The devil told you, "Go, but do not go far from me," and you are walking hand in hand with him. You cannot receive any revelation. Instead, you will face oppression. There is no such thing as a good Satan. When you remain with him, he will begin to bring problems into your life. He will oppress you with sickness and cause people to hate you, become angry with you, and rebel against you. There is no good Satan; there is no good devil.

Your miracle is to believe that you can recover everything. With Jesus, no situation is hopeless. We do not say that we have lost everything. With Jesus, things never end that way. That is why it is said, "Sing a new song." Do not act as though you are lost or as though there is nothing more you can do. He said, "I am about to do new things." God is powerful. He is alive, and He is still at work today. Jesus said, "My Father is always at his work, so I too am working." Tonight, you are going to work by faith. By faith, take hold of the members of your family one by one and bring them into the sheepfold. Drive out the false prophets and the diviners, and become the shepherd of that flock.

I would like to know whether there are any guests among us who want to come to Jesus on the very terms that Jesus Himself laid out, guests who say to Satan, "I no longer want to serve you. I have spent my life drinking alcohol and quarrelling. That is over today." If there is such a person, let them raise their hand.

The first thing you will do tonight is thank the Lord for your salvation. Do not doubt your salvation, because you are saved. But if you have not yet given your life to Jesus, know that you are not yet saved. You can still set things right now by giving your life to Jesus.

Say:

- Lord, thank you, because you have saved me! Thank you, Lord, because you have forgiven me! Thank you, Lord, because you prophesied that I would come out with great wealth! (Continue praying)

Isaiah 49:24–26: "Can plunder be taken from warriors, or captives rescued from the fierce? But this is what the Lord says: 'Yes, captives will be taken from warriors, and plunder retrieved from the fierce; I will contend with those who contend with you, and your children I will save. I will make your oppressors eat their own flesh; they will be drunk on their own blood, as with wine. Then all mankind will know that I, the Lord, am your Savior, your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.'"

Say:

- I proclaim that the captives of the mighty will be taken away! I will take back everything the wicked one has snatched from me! I will recover everything I left behind in Egypt when I came out!

I proclaim that, by faith, I can do all things! In the mighty name of Jesus, I can do all things! The Lord fights for me! By His name, I roll away reproach! By His name, I uproot mountains! By His name, I bring hills low! By His name, I scatter armed troops! By His name, I crush obstacles! By His name, I crush serpents and scorpions! By His name, I trample on the power of the enemy! (Pray in tongues.)

If you have never prayed in tongues, ask for the ability to speak in tongues, receive it, and speak in tongues now.

Say:

- Even if I don't know what I left behind in Egypt, and even if I do not know exactly what the devil stole from me, the Word of God says that the tyrant will be stripped of his spoils. That is enough for me!

In the name of Jesus, whether it is in the waters, the forests, the mountains, the deserts, the trees, the caves, the termite mounds, the abysses, the heavenly realms, the realm of the dead, places beneath the waters, or under the earth, everything that belongs to me must be snatched now! Everything that belongs to me must be recovered by faith, in the name of Jesus! (Continue to recover everything.)

What you recover may be a marriage, a job, a business, or something else. It includes everything that belongs to you but has been snatched away by tyrants, all that is yours that is now in the hands of tyrants. Believe, exercise authority, and recover by faith, in the name of Jesus of Nazareth, everything that belongs to you. Continue praying. Snatch it back, even if it is in the belly of a reptile. Let that reptile be ripped open.

- Say:
  - In the name of Jesus, I strike down every resistance!
  - In the name of Jesus, we scatter the enemy's troops! We seize our spiritual blessings! We seize our material blessings! We seize our financial blessings! We seize our marital blessings! We seize every kind of blessing! We strike down adversity! We strike down every resistance! We strip the enemy bare! We snatch back everything he has taken from us! We snatch back everything we neglected when we came out of the world! We seize our diplomas! We seize our jobs! We seize pregnancies! We seize marriages! Let there be true marriages for people of every age and every category! (Continue praying.)
  - In the name of Jesus, I leave nothing for the enemy! What God has given me belongs to me! What God has willed for me belongs to me!
  - In the name of Jesus, I recover everything! I break down closed doors! I break iron bolts! I break bronze gates! I tolerate no resistance! I tolerate no coalition! I scatter my adversaries! I scatter the wicked! I overturn every obstacle! I break every barrier! I break every coalition!
  - In the name of Jesus, let the earth open up and release everything that was stolen from me and hidden beneath the earth!
  - In the name of Jesus, let the graves open up and release everything that was stolen from me and hidden in the graves!
  - In the name of Jesus, let every blessing be released, even if it is in the belly of a fish!
  - In the name of Jesus, let every blessing be released, even if it is in the belly of an animal whose name we do not know!

In the name of Jesus, we rip open every animal, destroy every object holding our blessings captive, and release all our blessings. (Continue praying).

Recover everything. Leave nothing behind. Don't grow weary. You must strike until utter destruction.

Say:

- Father, act on our behalf! Act just as you promised when you said that the plunder of the tyrant's plunder would be taken from him! The tyrant's plunder must be taken from him this very moment!
- Wicked one, restore everything, in the name of Jesus of Nazareth!
- We proclaim that the wicked one will see in my life what he never wished for me! Continue praying in tongues.
- This is the time when God sends back to the enemy what he intended to do to you. If he wanted to put you in a pot, God will tell him, "Get into the pot yourself!" If he did not want you to marry, he will sit down and be served food on your wedding day. He will eat in anguish because he failed to prevent your marriage, and you will be there, full of joy. God does not love wickedness. He does not like it when someone sets a trap for another person. He forbade people from placing a stumbling block in the path of a blind person. The Lord punishes every evil scheme against you. He may not prevent the enemy from plotting against you, but He will take the enemy, together with all his plots, and place them under your feet.

Pray in tongues!

Keep silence

- Satan, begone! Every unclean spirit, begone! Get away from me! We judge every plot and place our adversaries under our feet! My enemy, you who wanted to harm me, you are under my foot! You who lied against me, you are under my foot! You who wanted to put me in the grave, you are under my foot! Begone!
- We break the chains! We bring to naught every plot! We banish every plot, everything called a plot among living human beings and among the wicked! In the name of Jesus Christ, we banish their plots!
- In the name of Jesus, if any human being has devised a demonic scheme to destroy a brother or sister, we bind that person and cast him out into the wilderness! We seize all the wicked who have stood in the path of God's chosen ones to harm them, and we cast them far away into dry and desolate places, even farther away among the scorpions! We deliver this brother and this sister from that wickedness!
- If it is a spirit of death, we cast you out, chain you, and send you back to the realm of the dead! If you are a spirit of the waters, we bind you and cast you into the hot waters! Let the hot waters be your prison! Let the hot waters be your prison!
- In the name of Jesus, if someone has been bewitched so that their possessions are stolen, if that person works while others enjoy the benefit, if you work and earn nothing because your wealth goes to sorcerers who have bewitched you, we break those ties! We shatter that prison!
- If anyone is suffering because lies have been spread against them, and since those lies were told, that person has done everything possible to clear their name, but no one believes them and people continue to believe the lie, may the Lord deliver you! May the Almighty decree your behalf! We destroy that lie! We cleanse your image! We cleanse your reputation! We erase the stain that has clung to your name! Continue praying.
- If there is someone suffering because they were born into a polygamous household and a stepmother practised witchcraft against them, took away their intelligence, and transferred their success to her own children, so that your mother's children appear foolish, we break that yoke and shatter that wickedness! We set your soul free! We release your blessing! We reclaim what was stolen from you! We restore your intelligence!

In the name of Jesus, if a child is suffering and being held back because someone stole the child's exercise book or pen, and since that theft the child has never succeeded, we declare that you are free! By the power of Jesus, we shatter that wickedness! We snatch the stolen pen! We snatch the stolen exercise book! We snatch the stolen report card, and we bless you! May the Lord find ways to bless you, even if you are already advanced in age! May the Lord accomplish in one day the work of a thousand years in your life! May this wipe away your tears! May the Lord strike your adversary and restore you to your inheritance!

Stay calm

- If you showed kindness to someone who had nowhere to sleep and gave that person shelter, but that person is now using you as a training ground for practising witchcraft and repaying your good with evil, in the name of Jesus, we bless you! We put an end to your suffering! We break every weapon being used to harm you!
- If anyone is suffering because they helped someone in one way or another, we declare that you are free! We break the yoke of wickedness! Let that weapon be broken! Be free!
- If there is warfare in your life, and if anyone is suffering because, in the practice of witchcraft, that person was meant to be sacrificed, but Jesus came and blocked the way, yet the enemies continue to pursue that person, we chase them out of that person's life! We proclaim that Jesus is Lord! That person will live! That person will not be used to pay your debts in witchcraft!

- In the name of Jesus, if there is someone among us suffering from depression because their spirit is already living in another world, we bring your spirit back into our world, into this present world!
- In the name of Jesus, we bring back to life and to soundness of mind all those who are already depressed! We close their ears and minds to the invisible world! May they be healed, in the name of Jesus! (Let's pray in tongues! Pray with faith. The Lord is at work in your life)

In the name of Jesus, if anyone among us has been troubled by Satan through false prophets who told them, "You are going to die," and ever since you were told this, you have lost your faith, we condemn that lie! You will live! You will serve God and fulfil God's purposes!

Let us stand and say:

- In the name of Jesus, if there is a brother or sister among us who has been engaged in this battle for years and has encountered adversity and resistance, with one accord, we break that resistance now! Let it collapse! Let it be crushed, and we give the victory to this brother!
- If you have experienced such moments while we are praying, persist.
- You have an unclean spirit and have fallen. We drive out the entire army of demons attempting to resist us, and we destroy this coalition! We raise this brother or sister up and restore them to their high places!

If there is anyone among us, including someone online, whose soul was exchanged for the soul of an animal, who fell sick, was placed in a grave and then brought out, and has been confused ever since, healed but still not normal, we declare that you are free! In the name of Jesus, we restore your soul to its rightful place! We bring it back from wherever it was held captive!

- Listen, we must disarm all our enemies who are resisting us. The Bible says that unless they are disarmed, they will not abandon the battle. Pray by faith that every weapon in the hands of an adversary be snatched, leaving that adversary with nothing.
- We snatch from the hands of every adversary every weapon on which they relied! We snatch it and break it, even if it is in the hands of someone like Goliath. We snatch it and break it! Even if those weapons are in the hands of many Goliaths, we take them away right now! We proclaim total victory!
- In the name of Jesus, if you are being pursued by a great serpent that has existed in your family since before your birth, claiming that you are its child, that you belong to it, we declare that to be false. We cancel every year of worship offered to it! Every spirit of the serpent, come out, be gone! Spirit of the panther, be gone! Spirit of the crocodile, be gone! Spirit of the python, be gone! Spirit of the catfish, be gone!
- In the name of Jesus, if there is a sister who is possessed because a sorcerer repeatedly told her, "You are my wife," and she thought he was joking, we break this yoke of bondage!

If you have a wound that refuses to heal and has become a source of shame to you, we declare that you are healed! Let that wound disappear! May your healing become a testimony!
