CRUSADE FOR THE OVERTHROW OF PERSONAL AND FAMILY PRINCIPALITIES

OVERTHROW OF PERSONAL AND FAMILY PRINCIPALITIES

N^{b} 0695
18th Edition

1 July to 9 August 2026

SUMMARY DAY 15
15 July 2026

Evangelistic Message

PAY THE PRICE TO ENTER HEAVEN

Warfare Prayer

ALL DISEASES AND THE SATANIC PRINCES BEHIND THEM MUST BE JUDGED

Boniface MENYE

Evangelistic Message

PAY THE PRICE TO ENTER HEAVEN

Matthew 13:44, "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and then in his joy went and sold all he had and bought that field."

Matthew 13:45–46, "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls. When he found one pearl of great value, he went away, sold everything he had, and bought it."

These two parables convey the same core message. They show each of us that we must pay the price and invest everything we have in order to enter heaven. Once you have found the way to Heaven, pay whatever it costs to enter, pay the full price.

Matthew 13:44, "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and then in his joy went and sold all he had and bought that field."

The first parable features a man who was just passing through or working in a field, without expecting to discover any treasure. As he was working, he stumbled upon a hidden treasure. Immediately, he left his work, ran home to gather the required amount of money so he could buy the field. He sold everything he could, raised the money, and returned to purchase it. He said to the owner, "I want this field. Sell it to me." The owner probably said to himself, "it's just a field, an old one at that." So, he sold it to him. Once the man acquired the field, he began extracting its resources. He wasn't looking for a treasure; he found it effortlessly.

This parable describes the first category of people: they were not seeking Jesus. They were—or are—simply living their lives when Jesus reveals himself to them and calls them. They consult witch doctors, yet Jesus calls them. Someone once told me that he went to consult a witch doctor, who looked at him and said, "You, go to church." Here is someone who finds the treasure without looking for it. But what God expects of such a person is that he pays the price, that he does his utmost to get the amount of money needed to buy the field. You want to belong to God, yet you are unwilling to pay the price. you want God, but you want Him for free. You must understand that in the doctrine of Jesus, receiving Him must cost you dearly. It demands that you sell everything you have in order to possess this treasure. If anyone has ever told you that Jesus is free, and you say: "Jesus, carry me on your back," that person has deceived you. It costs a lot. You must sell all your possessions in order to buy the field, because that field contains a treasure.

Have you found the treasure? If you have, then do your utmost to buy the field. That field must be yours! Don't let it go. You have found the treasure. You have found Jesus of Nazareth. Your family and friends must be utterly stunned and say that their friend, son, or daughter is going crazy. He/she is selling his/her shoes, clothes and everything! They must say, "We don't know what is happening to him or her!"

Some advisers may have come and said to that man, "You know, life is full of risks. You shouldn't act like this. Selling everything is unwise." But he doesn't listen to them. He knows he has just found a treasure in the field that he wants to possess. He wants to own it and pays the full price. You must do the same. Jesus is the greatest Treasure you will ever find on this earth. When someone talks about Him, listen carefully. If you want to believe in Him, pay the full price whether you are persecuted or not. Pay the price when obstacles stand in your way, and pay it even when the path is easy. Jesus is a great Treasure! Jesus is a great Treasure! Jesus is a great Treasure! If you have encountered him even if you were not looking for Him the moment he reveals himself to you, pay whatever it costs to have

Him in your heart.

The second parable portrays a man who does not find the treasure by chance; he is actively searching for it. There are people who sincerely seek God. You, a seeker of pearls who sells pearls and know their different values. You come here to pray, buy the books we sell, and love things about God. You are seeking pearls—not just any pearl, but the finest one. You say, "I am looking for a true church where I can worship and pray with the brethren. What I hear from people and what I see around me discourages me. I am seeking genuine pearls; I'm not playing around anymore. I am fed up with false prophets. I want to worship the true God." Suddenly, you find the very pearl you have been seeking. But it costs you all your wealth. You sell everything you possess. Since you know its true worth, you do not hesitate to pay the price. You run everywhere to gather the money needed to buy that priceless pearl. You sell everything you have, raise the money, purchase it, and then trade it. Your investment is returned to you a thousandfold, and you become a truly happy person. Jesus wants you to listen carefully and make your choice. If you choose idols, they are inexpensive. Some witch doctors give people charms to carry with them and come back to say thank you when the intended blessing has been received. It can be a small stone or a small piece of wood to keep in your pocket. You may also go to a prophet who tells you that he will pray for you in exchange for 50,000 francs. So you give him this amount of money. you can even borrow it from someone else. But when it comes to the Pearl worth billions, you sell everything in order to possess it. What does that mean?

> Luke 14:25–27, "Large crowds were traveling with Jesus, and turning to them He said: If anyone comes to Me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters yes, even their own life he cannot be My disciple. And anyone who does not carry his cross and follow me cannot be my disciple."

In practical terms, this is what it means to sell everything in order to possess the Treasure, Jesus. He did good wherever he went. The crowds recognized him as the Savior and as a great Teacher. Yet Jesus says to you, "Leave all those people behind. Forget everything they expect of you, and let Me become your absolute Master." But, you reply, "Jesus, my father asked me to buy some beer; I couldn't refuse. They asked me to pour oil on the skulls of our ancestors. I couldn't say no; I didn't want to offend them. Everyone in my family did it my cousins, my uncles so I had to do it as well." There are many people who want to follow Jesus, but they are not willing to pay the price. Jesus says, "If you truly believe I am the Treasure, then you pay the price. You will obey me completely. You will carry your cross and follow him." He is your Master. Large crowds were following Jesus. He turned to them and said, "It is good that you are following me. But you are not doing it the right way. You do not follow me with tobacco, koutoukou (traditional distilled alcoholic drink), adultery, and theft. That is not how one follows me. Carry your cross. Accept suffering, humility, and self-denial if you want to follow me."

My dear friend, even if you are the only person here, Jesus is speaking to you. You must give him your life by casting everything else into the sand this evening. You will go back home with Jesus as your personal Lord and Savior. Tonight, you will sleep soundly. If you obey, He himself will perform the miracle. Do not say, "Lord, deliver me first, and then I will obey." He will not deliver you first. You must take the first step and separate yourself from everything that keeps you away from Him, including false friends. It will cost you dearly.

> 1 Corinthians 15:33–34, "Do not be misled: 'Bad Company corrupts good character.' Come back to your senses as you ought, and stop sinning; for there are some who are ignorant of God. I say this to your shame."

Come back to your senses. You must break away from bad company—friends involved in banditry, theft, and murder—if you claim to have found Jesus. You must forsake everything to possess Him. Jesus alone must be your Master.

> Philippians 3:5-10, "circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; in regard to the Law, a Pharisee; as for zeal, persecuting the Church; as for legalistic righteousness, faultless. What is more, I consider everything a loss compared to the surpassing greatness of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose, sake I have lost all things. I consider them rubbish that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the Law, but that which is through faith in Christ the righteousness that comes from God and is by faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of sharing in his sufferings, becoming like him in his death."

When Paul came to know Jesus, when Jesus revealed himself to him, he renounced everything. He considered a loss and rubbish, the things that were once a gain to him, because he has found the treasure. I consider nightclubs as rubbish, because I want to possess the treasure. I regard bars as rubbish, because I have found Jesus of Nazareth. I want to hold fast to Christ! I want to possess this great treasure. I regard nightclubs as rubbish, because I want to possess the treasure. I have thrown away cigarettes and drugs and walked on foot, because I have found Jesus of Nazareth.

Paul had found Jesus. He confessed that he had given up everything. Paul will go to heaven; he knows that Jesus is the way to heaven. Jesus said: "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me." When you find Jesus, you have found the way to heaven. If you are wise, you sell everything you own.

Everything is now seen as mere rubbish! When you find great treasures, when you find the pearl of great price, other things become rubbish. Jesus is a great treasure; the pearl of great price. Jesus Himself applied this principle to save mankind. You cannot save mankind while holding onto your own life. He laid down His life to win people over.

> Mark 10:17–31, "As Jesus started on his journey, a man ran up to him, and fell on his knees before him. "Good Teacher, he asked, what must I do to inherit eternal life? "Why do you call me good? Jesus answered. No one is good except God alone. You know the commandments: 'Do not murder, do not commit adultery; do not steal; do not give false testimony; do not defraud; honor your father and mother.' 'Teacher," he declared, all these I have kept since I was a boy.' Jesus looked at him and loved him. 'One thing you lack; he said. Go, sell everything you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.' At the man's, face fell. He went sad, because he had great wealth. Jesus, looked around, and said to his disciples, 'How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!' The disciples were amazed at his words .but Jesus said again," children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of God.' The disciples were even more amazed, and said to each other, who then can be saved? Jesus looked at them and said, 'with man this is impossible, but not with God; for all things are possible with God.' Peter said, Peter said to him, we have left everything to follow you!' I tell you the truth, Jesus replied one who has left home, or brothers, or sisters, or mother, or father, or children, or fields, for me the gospel, will fail to receive a hundred times as much in this present age(, homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and fields and with them persecutions), and, in the age to come, eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last first."

Jesus makes things clear here, so that no one is mistaken. Someone comes running to Him, says he wants to enter heaven, and asks what he must do. Jesus replies that he must obey God's commandments and begins to list what he must do and what is forbidden. What he tells him is the ABCs of the Gospel: do not steal, do not lie, do not commit adultery. If you do these things, you must renounce them, confess them and abandon.

The first step, which is to renounce sin when you encounter Jesus, had been correctly followed by the young man. Many people are in this situation; they are not atheists. They do not deny Jesus. They do not say that there is no God. They have begun to come to him like this man, but they are not prepared to do whatever it takes to obey. They obey only to a limited extent. Some may give up stealing, but they commit other sins. They boast that they do not steal, while remaining silent about the areas where they are disobedient.

The Bible says that if you keep the whole law but break just one commandment, you are guilty of all the other sins.

But tonight we need people who will obey what this young man refused to do. He refused to sell everything he owned and went away very sad. But what are your plans? Are you prepared to give up your whole life to have Jesus? Are you prepared to turn away from sin, to cast aside the riches of the world and idolatry, so that you may have Jesus within you, in your heart? When you refuse to pay the price, you lose the joy of the Holy Spirit. If you refuse to open the door to Jesus Christ, you will leave this place feeling sad. But if you open your heart so that Jesus of Nazareth may enter it and become your only treasure, you will return home blessed, joyful and cleansed. you will sing hymns. You will be a new person. God will give you a new heart; a heart that obeys God. If you agree to sell everything you own to buy this field, you will return home blessed.

Warfare Prayer

ALL DISEASES AND THE SATANIC PRINCES BEHIND THEM MUST BE JUDGED

> Psalm 103:1–5, "praise the Lord O my soul; all my inmost being, praise his holy name. praise the Lord , O my soul, bless the Lord, and forget not all His benefits who forgives all your sins and heals all your diseases; who redeems your life from the pit and crowns you with love and compassion; who satisfies your desires with good things, so that your you this renewed like the eagle's."

Tonight, we are going to intercede; we are going to call on God; the God who heals, who delivers.

There are many diseases. Diseases comes from the devil. We must call upon God for help. All diseases come from the devil. We must judge them. We must call upon our Father and ask him to rise up and deliver us. Do not take it lightly, even if you are suffering from nothing more than a slight itch; it can worsen and turn into something else. Sickness comes from the devil. When you study the work of sorcerers, you see that they specialise in spells, which are diseases.

I had undertaken a three-day fast to pray for the sick people in our church in Douala, and I was astonished. One day, I had prayed, and I had barely lain down when a spirit entered the room. It seized me; its thumb was pressed against one ear and its index finger against the other. It said to me, 'Can't you stop what you've started?' I replied, 'We cannot stop what we deemed beneficial." It exited through the wall. From that day on, I understood that satanic princes are behind illnesses. I wasn't sleeping, and I was only on a three-day fast. This means that this fast had reached their kingdom. When you pray, you must believe.

Let us stand up. Just cry out!

- O Father, command our healing! O Father, grant us your victories this evening! It is written that it is by the stripes of Jesus that we are healed! O Father, may your word be fulfilled! (Keep praying)

Father, we believe the testimony of David (Psalms 103:1–5). This testimony is true; you are the one who heals our diseases! (Continue to pray.)

Pray with faith. Say:

- You are the one who heals our infirmities! Father, it is by the stripes of Jesus that we are healed! (Continue to pray)
- Lord, command our healing! (Continue to pray)
- Continue to pray in tongues!

He is the one who heals our infirmities. It is by His wounds that we are saved and healed! (Keep praying)

Our prayer has not yet reached the intensity of heaven. Jesus prayed and sweat poured down from him like drops of blood. We are dealing with a very important subject. Sickness is all around us. It is in our bodies; it is in our lives. If you pray like the religious, you will become cold. Your prayer must open the heavens; your prayer must lay hold of God. We must pray as contrite, broken people, crying out to God to unleash the army of healing. This is achieved through fervent prayers. The apostles prayed, the earth shook, and the Holy Spirit descended upon them. If we pray, certain illnesses will be cast out, fall into the dust and leave the bodies free.

Stand up

- The Lord had already taught me that prayer without sweat is not true prayer. He prayed, and his sweat turned into blood. As a result, the Father sent an angel to strengthen him. Every fervent prayer that rises to God and opens the heavens will come down with healings.

O Father, give your commands!

Some have been ill for years, and some illnesses simply refuse to go away; they are beyond the reach of medicine, and people have resigned themselves to the fact that they are incurable.

- • O Father, You can heal us! (Keep praying)
- O Father, may the reign of sickness be broken! May the armies of the devil behind these illnesses be judged! May the armies of demons behind these illnesses be scattered!
- O Father, may the eyes be healed! May the feet be healed! May the breasts be healed! May the hearts be healed! May the stomachs be healed! May all kinds of illnesses be healed! May your word be fulfilled in our lives, now!
- May the paralysed walk! May the nerves be healed! May the spines be set free!
- In the name of Jesus of Nazareth, let the army of diseases be judged and condemned! Let everything called sickness—whether minor or major—be healed! (Pray in tongues)
- We roll up diseases, just as one rolls up a mat, and cast them into the abyss! sickness, be gone, in the name of Jesus Christ! Let everything called sickness release the body! Sickness, wherever you may be lodged, come out and be gone! We burn what must be burned! We rip off what must be ripped off! We tear out the diseases rooted in the flesh! We tear out the diseases rooted in the brain! We tear out all confusion! We condemn the diseases that attack the mind! We judge cancer! We jude the uncontrolled production of cells! Cancer, be gone! Diabetes, be gone! Haemorrhoids, you have no place in this body. Come out and be gone! Kidney failure, go away!
- We heal the wombs! We heal the fallopian tubes! Fallopian tubes, be healed, in the name of Jesus Christ! We judge barrenness, whatever the causes! Barrenness, go!

In the name of Jesus, we cast out glaucoma! We cast out cataracts! We cast out sinusitis! We cast out asthma! Be gone! We rip you off these bodies, even if you do not want to leave! We cast you into the abyss! We drive out the demons that cause your presence, in the name of Jesus!

Pray in tongues and believe. God is faithful. Believe that, even if the illness has deep roots, the Lord will uproot it. Believe that your cry has reached Him; do not doubt. What we are asking for is a miracle. You can check whether your miracle has already taken place. Checking does not mean that you are doubting. Checking means that you want to glory God. You may discover that the pain you had in your breast has gone. You may discover that the wound has vanished.

Say:

- In the name of Jesus, if the heavenly host were descending and encountered a spirit claiming certain things in the lives of the brethren, with one accord and by the authority of the Church, we strike that spirit, and we clear the way! May the messenger arrive in the life of every person to whom the Lord has sent him!

I proclaim that Jesus heals! I proclaim that Jesus delivers! I proclaim that Jesus saves! He saves! He heals and He delivers!

Keep silent.

- Spirit of sickness, if you are present in a body or in a person's life, and you are making claims, instead of obeying, we silence you! We cast you out! Go away, you have no authority! Jesus paid the full price to bring his people into healing! It does not depend on demons! It depends on the One who spoke from his throne! It does not depend on you. Go away!

If you have noticed your healing, stand up and come to give your testimony!

Mark 11:22–24, "Have faith in God Jesus answered. I tell you the truth, if anyone says to this mountain, 'Go, throw yourself into the sea,' and does not doubt in their heart but believes that what he says will happen; it will be done for him. Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours."

If you ask for anything in prayer, believe that you have received it, and you will see it come to pass.

Say:

- I proclaim that I have received my healing; I have asked the faithful God for my healing! I have asked the Almighty God for my healing, and His Word tells me to believe that I have received my healing! I believe that I am healed!

Take your brother by the hand and say:

- In the name of Jesus, let the forces of darkness behind these diseases be judged! Let the entire army of darkness be overthrown and never rise again!
- In the name of Jesus, we protect every healing that has been received this evening, until it comes to pass!
- Believe that God has given you what you have asked for. Our life is faith; if we do not believe, we lose out. Believe, even if you feel a tingling. Just say to Satan:

You're on your own, because God has healed me! You're on your own; I know that God has healed me.

- Say:

In the name of Jesus, we protect every healing received this evening, under the blood of Jesus!

- In the name of Jesus, we cast out doubt and fear!

In the name of Jesus, sickness, you are defeated! Your kingdom is defeated! The principalities are defeated! Everyone who serves you is defeated!

Raise your right hand and say:

- In the name of Jesus, we judge accidents!
- In the name of Jesus, we judge the spirit of the dead. We judge fires! We proclaim divine protection and healing! (Let us pray in tongues)
- Jesus heals! Jesus delivers! Jesus forgives! Jesus heals every sickness!