CRUSADE FOR THE OVERTHROW OF PERSONAL AND FAMILY PRINCIPALITIES

OVERTHROW OF PERSONAL AND FAMILY PRINCIPALITIES

N^{b} 0700
18th Edition

1 July to 9 August 2026

SUMMARY DAY 20

20 July 2026

Evangelistic Message

BELIEVE IN THE LORD JESUS WHO DELIVERS MAN FROM SIN

Warfare Prayer

THE PROSPERITY OF GOD'S CHILDREN AWAITS THEM IN THE PLACE THAT GOD HAS PREDESTINED FOR THEM

Boniface MENYE

TEACHING DELIVERED AFTER THE TESTIMONY OF A SISTER WHO WAS SET FREE WHEN THE HOLY SPIRIT USED A BROTHER IN A VISION.

Hebrews 1:7, "In speaking of the angels he says, 'He makes his angels spirits, his servants flames of fire. God can use a brother's spirit to go and deliver someone. When this happens, we must not think that it is an angel who took the form of a brother to act. During spiritual warfare, angels are sent into the seas, into Hades, onto the mountains, into the hills, etc. They fight in accordance with the prayers raised by the saints.»

God can use the spirit of a brother to go and deliver someone. When this happens, one must not think that it is an angel who has taken on the appearance of a brother in order to act.

During spiritual warfare, angels are sent to the seas, to the realm of the dead, to mountains, to hills, and so forth. They fight in accordance with the prayers offered up by the saints.

Hebrews 1:13–14, "To which of the angels did God ever say, 'Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet'? Are not all angels ministering spirits sent to serve those who will inherit salvation?»

When sisters share the visions they have, one might think they are just playing around. We must realize that visions reflect the great battles being fought in the unseen realm. God is not slow as some claim. When we begin to pray, God's army is simultaneously at work. God sends them to us to help us in the fight. In some cases, the angels do not fight; they simply watch us and only intervene when the battle becomes difficult. Visions are part of God's promises. You can ask God to give you the ability to have them.

Another reality is found in the passage of 1 Corinthians 15:44.

If there is a physical body, there is a spiritual body. Let no one deceive you. Take the example of the Bible I am holding in my hands right now. If it has a physical body, it also has a spiritual body that exists in the unseen realm. When people say that sorcerers have stolen diplomas, they are not talking about physical documents. They steal the spiritual body of those documents.

When a grave exists in the physical world, it also has a spiritual dimension.You can go to the cemetery, break a tomb, and dig it. You will see nothing but bones and decay because you acted on the physical dimension. But if you go there in the spirit, you will see stolen money and hidden shoes there. The corpse might even stand up and ask you, 'Why are you troubling me?' If there is a spiritual body, there is a physical body. If there is a heavenly body, there is an earthly body. Let no one deceive you. Deliverance becomes more effective when you know these truths. Consequently, when you say, 'I take back my diplomas,' it is your spiritual dimension acting through faith.

A very sick sister once dreamed that she was covered with a white sheet. Suddenly, a brother appeared and quickly removed the sheet. When she woke up, she was healed. What happened? God used the brother's spirit to bring about this work. There is what the Bible calls the spirits of the righteous made perfect. These are the spirits that God has sanctified. The saints made perfect and the living children of God who have believed form the Church, with Jesus of Nazareth as their head. During battles, when God's children on earth declare, 'We judge!' and according to what God said, that whatever we bind on earth is bound in heaven—wicked spirits are judged. Let no one deceive you. If you do not understand, you need revelation.

When you hear: 'We cut off the serpent!', it is not about the small serpent in the grass. There are serpentine spirits. The Bible speaks of eagles and lions; There are not the ones you find in the bush. There are spiritual eagles, lions, crocodiles, and caiman. You can go to a river, capture a caiman, kill it and eat. That is not what this is about. You must know that there are flying caiman spirits that are worshipped through strict rituals. Note that their power grows as the number of their worshippers increases. Therefore, visions and dreams should not be overlooked. We say this because some people despise visions.

Yet, the Bible commands us not to despise prophecy. On the contrary, it recommends testing it to hold fast to what is good. God gives visions. Someone tells you: 'I failed my exam three times. A person always used to come and tell me that I was going to fail my exam. Indeed, I kept failing. Then, I gave my life to Jesus. After the brethren carried out the breaking of my evil ties, I went to take the exam again. This time around, the person who kept telling me I would fail didn't show up. I finally passed my exam.' Take this very seriously. For some, this is witchcraft. That is a mistake! It is rather the manifestation of the power of God.

God exists, God is, and He is true. You must not believe in the devil more than you believe in God.

Some believe that the devil can easily take on the face of a person and that spirits do not exist. By believing this, they give the impression that the devil is more powerful than the Spirit of God. Spirits of the dead do exist; they are not demons that have taken the face of a deceased person. No! The spirits of the dead do exist. God forbids us from invoking them and inquiring of them. To invoke them is to cause them to manifest, to commune with them, and to call upon them for help. God is not a fool. If such things did not exist, He would not have forbidden us to invoke them. God is wisdom, knowledge, and fullness. When He tells you, "Do not invoke the dead," He knows that it exists and that people do it.

There are churches in which demons are not cast out. They are the devil's accomplices. We went to Mali, and during the ministry, demons were manifesting. One of them said to me, "You are mean." How does it know me? The sorcerers know what we are doing in Attiékoi. They know that it is real and serious.

Be wise, therefore. You will notice that I make few comments on these things. Knowledge can puff you up and make you proud. When we break the evil ties and you say, "I break the evil ties," it is what you believe that comes to pass. The word of God says that life and death are in the power of the tongue. We use neither machetes nor clubs. We use the Word. I do it here, and everyone sees it. We pray, demons manifest, and when they manifest, we cast them out. It is the little children who say, "In the name of Jesus, come out!" And you have the testimonies of those who have been delivered. Let no one deceive you. Let us be serious; God is with us. Even the prayer topics are given by God.

We were praying in Adjamé in 2018; I was leading the prayer when the Holy Spirit said to me: "Pray that if anyone has sworn an oath, with or without an imprecation, that as long as they live you will amount to nothing, let them get out of your way."

Ever since I believed, I had never prayed like that; it was the first time. I paused the prayer to share the topic. We prayed. That was a Wednesday. On Thursday, a sister called me and said, "daddy, daddy, he has been removed!" I did not know what she was talking about. Afterward, she explained to me that a finance director swore that her invoices would never be paid as long as he lived. When we prayed, God performed a miracle. He was removed from his position. The new director arrived and said to her, "I will pay all your invoices." One day, she asked me, "Daddy, where are you? I've been paid!" The Spirit of God gives the prayer topics. When a topic is shared, hold on to it, just as you would with a Bible verse. From time to time, pray according to that topic.

Before, we were well acquainted with the concepts of enchantment, possession, and oppression. During a crusade, I was leading the prayer. The Holy Spirit said to me, "Banish the spell." I paused the prayer and said to the brethren, "Let us banish bewitchment." We prayed accordingly. A sister shared a testimony after the prayer. She said that in a vision she saw a white dog collapse to the ground when we declared that we were banishing bewitchment.

God speaks, God is alive, He exists, He is. Anyone who comes to God must believe that He exists and that He rewards those who earnestly seek Him. This is a condition for God to accept you. If you do not believe it, God will not take you seriously.

When it is often said, "Let us pray in tongues," some tongues are interpreted; I know this. When I speak in tongues, I know when God gives me a message. When I resume the prayer, it is that message that I give. You can do this if God is with you. This is faith in Jesus of Nazareth. Someone once said, "God gives the words to pray just as He gives the words to preach." People easily believe in preaching. They say, "No, God used you." Just as He gives the words to preach, He also gives words to pray. If you put all this into practice, you will make progress.

Today, we are going to strike against that which blocks revelations. What causes a person to read the Bible ten times without receiving revelation? And even when they claim to have received a revelation, what they call revelation is merely inspiration. There is a difference between inspiration and revelation. There is illumination, revelation, inspiration, and understanding. You must know these things according to their dimensions and their roles. When you need to understand, God must illuminate your mind. When you need to know in a supernatural, divine way, God must give you visions and revelations.

Evangelistic Message

BELIEVE IN THE LORD JESUS WHO DELIVERS MAN FROM SIN

John 1:18–35, "No one has ever seen God, but the one and only Son, who is himself God and is in closest relationship with the Father, has made him known. Now this was John's testimony when the Jewish leaders in Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to ask him who he was. He did not fail to confess, but confessed freely, 'I am not the Messiah. They asked him, 'Then who are you? Are you Elijah?' He said, 'I am not.' 'Are you the Prophet?' He answered, 'No.' Finally they said, 'Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?' John replied in the words of Isaiah the prophet, 'I am the voice of one calling in the wilderness, Make straight the way for the Lord. Now the Pharisees who had been sent questioned him, 'Why then do you baptize if you are not the Messiah, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?' 'I baptize with water,' John replied, 'but among you stands one you do not know. He is the one who comes after me, the straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie.'This all happened at Bethany on the other side of the Jordan, where John was baptizing. The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, 'Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! This is the one I meant when I said, "A man who comes after me has surpassed me because he was before me." I myself did not know him, but the reason I came baptizing with water was that he might be revealed to Israel.' Then John gave this testimony: 'I saw the Spirit come down from heaven as a dove and remain on him. And I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, "The man on whom you see the Spirit come down and remain is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit." I have seen and I testify that this is the Son of God."

This portion of the Holy Scriptures invites us to believe in the Lord Jesus as the God who delivers man from sin. Jesus does not just forgive you; He uproots and takes away your sin. He also delivers you from your bad character, from sin, which is a principle of evil that rules over you. You want to forsake it, but you cannot.

Romans 7:13–25, "Did that which is good, then, become death to me? By no means! Nevertheless, in order that sin might be recognized as sin, it used what is good to bring about my death, so that through the commandment sin might become utterly sinful. We know that the law is spiritual; but I am unspiritual, sold as a slave to sin. I do not understand what I do. For what I want to do I do not do, but what I hate I do. And if I do what I do not want to do, I agree that the law is good. As it is, it is no longer I myself who do it, but it is sin living in me. For I know that good itself does not dwell in me, that is, in my sinful nature. For I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out. For I do not do the good I want to do, but the evil I do not want to do—this I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but it is sin living in me that does it. So I find this law at work: Although I want to do good, evil is right there with me. For in my inner being I delight in God's law; but I see another law at work in me, waging war against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin at work within me.What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body that is subject to death? Thanks be to God, who delivers me through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself in my mind am a slave to God's law, but in my sinful nature a slave to the law of sin."

Through this biblical passage, God spoke to me; He gave me commandments. He told me that if I do not obey, I will die. In fact, I do not want to die; I want to obey His commandments, but the challenge is that when I decide to obey, I fail to do so because of sin.

God wants to show me that sin prevents me from obeying Him. Sin is my enemy. It wants to drag me into the lake of fire, where I do not want to go. God wants me to understand that sin must be hated and condemned. No human being should love sin, because sin keeps you from obeying God. In God's mind, you must condemn sin to the highest degree. The greatest punishment must be reserved for sin. This means you must say to yourself that sin is evil and that you will no longer cooperate with it.

God wanted you to discover your helplessness. God wants your eyes to be opened to your inability to obey Him, and for you to begin to hate sin. If you have begun to hate sin, know that you are on the right path. You have not yet reached the goal, but this is the way to go. Sin must be condemned to the highest degree. You must truly understand what the Bible says about sin. For if you understand this well, you will easily understand why Jesus came into the world.

God gives you the law, which then becomes a problem for you. You want to be good, but you spend all your time doing the exact opposite of your own will. God asks you to love your neighbor; you are willing, but you have no strength to love others.

A brother once shared his testimony with us. He told us that he was very sick, and eventually, his arm became paralyzed. He loved school, but his right hand was completely dead, so he wrote with his left hand. The pain was excruciating, and he said to his mother, "If I do not get healed, I am going to throw myself into the Bia River and die." She was terrified. So she took him, along with his older sister, to consult a sorcerer on the road to Dabou. When the sorcerer saw them, he said to her, "Kill him and eat him." The mother stared fixedly at the sorcerer. He kept insisting, "Kill him and eat him while you're at it." The brother looked at his sister, and she looked back at him. When they left, they said to their mother, "What is your problem? Tell us. We can help you." Listen to her reply: "My son, you know that I love you, but at night, I have no strength; I can only destroy." Which meant: "I am the source of your affliction. I have masters at night, and I only do what they tell me to do. At night, I have no strength." You can only hate. But starting tonight, you will have the strength to do good, not to practice sorcery. You will have the strength to love, to forgive, and to overcome jealousy.

Jealousy is dangerous. When it possesses you, you lose weight; you can no longer sleep. When the one you hate makes progress, you become sicker and sicker, and no one can help you. If you get into a quarrel, people can come to your rescue, but when hatred is in your heart, no one sees it; it consumes you, you suffer alone, and you fall sick. Even if you have believed in Jesus Christ for years, this message is for you. It shows you the royal road to experiencing deliverance from sin.

The first thing required is that you discover that sin manipulates you, dominates you, and clings to you. You spend your time doing the evil you do not want to do. You no longer want to drink alcohol, but even in your dreams you drink it, and when you wake up, you continue drinking. In your heart, you agree with God; you know that everything He tells you is good for you, but your hands, your feet, and your eyes push you toward theft, lust, quarreling, violence, and pride. All these sins follow you. This is the condition of human being. The Holy Spirit wants you to know that this is what you are.

This matter of sin is no simple thing, for there is a law, a set of principles activated and at work. You can do nothing about it. It is like a stone you throw into the air; it must inevitably fall back to the ground because of a law pulling it downward. It is the same with sin, which has a law pulling you down. As a result of struggling against sin, you ultimately find yourself wretched. And you cry out: "Oh, I am wretched! What a wretched man I am!" This means you have realized that sin dominates you. Then you begin to seek the solution. You have a problem in your body, and you look for someone who can deliver you. You look for a deliverer, someone powerful who can break this law that manipulates your mind and reduces all your efforts to nothing.

Glory be to God! The Savior is found! His name is Jesus Christ of Nazareth, the Son of the living God. He is the one who has the solution! When John the Baptist saw Him, he said: "Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! The one who sent me told me, 'The man on whom you see the Spirit come down is the one.' It is this Jesus Christ who died on the cross of Calvary, was buried, and rose again on the third day. He commanded us to go and preach the good news to all creation. Whoever believes in this good news and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. The solution has been found; the Redeemer is known.

From now on, no one needs to perish. God has already provided the solution. Some people ask why God allowed man to be tempted. Do not try to fathom that; look instead at how God sends the Redeemer, Jesus Christ, into the world. Look at how magnificent it is. You must contemplate the love of God.

Romans 8:1, "Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus."

The moment you believe in Jesus, God no longer condemns you. Jesus came to take away all the sins you committed when sin was controlling you. The devil thought he had already succeeded. But as soon as Jesus comes down, He says: There is no more condemnation; the stealing is over, the anger is over. You only need to believe in Me. I am the Redeemer. Jesus came to take away sin and its consequences. Jesus is alive.

Sin has a law that drags you down, but there is another law called the law of the Spirit of life. It is the law that activates the power of Jesus. When you set this law in motion, it releases the power of Jesus. It crushes the law of sin, and you are set free. The law of sin and death is broken. It is finished; Jesus has done the work. Before, it was impossible because you were weak, but Jesus took you aside and crushed the head of the enemy.

Matthew 1:18–23, This is how the birth of Jesus the Messiah came about: His mother Mary was pledged to be married to Joseph, but before they came together, she was found to be pregnant through the Holy Spirit. Because Joseph her husband was faithful to the law, and yet did not want to expose her to public disgrace, he had in mind to divorce her quietly. But after he had considered this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins. All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet: The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel, which means "God with us."

This passage shows how Jesus entered the world. It was prophesied that a virgin would conceive without sexual relations, and that the child born of her would be the Son of God, conceived by the Holy Spirit. He would be called Immanuel: "God with us." It is He, Jesus Christ, who will deliver His people from their sins. Now you know the truth. It is He, Jesus Christ, who will save you tonight. However, you must believe that everything we are saying is true. You must believe that Jesus is the solution. I want you to believe; thus you will see the hand of God and you will live victoriously. You will no longer fall into the gutters. You will be strong, steadfast, and the Spirit of Jesus will dwell in you. The law of the Spirit of life in Jesus will dwell in you and break the law of sin that was operating in your body. You will be a new man, you will be a new woman.

The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world is here; He gives the power to overcome sin. Jesus is the one who can save you from your sins. Give Him your life. He has the solution to all your problems. Act quickly. Jesus is waiting for you to change your heart and your life. He will take away the wicked heart with its sin and throw it away. You will be powerful, wise, sanctified, and justified. If you agree, stand up. If you have backslidden and fallen as you walked, because sin was stronger than you, now Jesus is asking you to return to Him. He wants to deliver you; He wants to bless you.

Warfare Prayer

THE PROSPERITY OF THE CHILDREN OF GOD AWAITS THEM IN THE PLACE THAT GOD HAS PREDESTINED FOR THEM

1Thessalonians 2:18, "For we wanted to come to you—certainly I, Paul, did, again and again—but Satan blocked our way."

2 Samuel 5:6–10: "The king and his men marched to Jerusalem to attack the Jebusites, who lived there. The Jebusites said to David, "You will not get in here; even the blind and the lame can ward you off." They thought, "David cannot get in here." Nevertheless, David captured the fortress of Zion—which is the City of David. On that day David had said, "Anyone who conquers the Jebusites will have to use the water shaft to reach those 'lame and blind' who are David's enemies." That is why they say, "The 'blind and lame' will not enter the palace." David then took up residence in the fortress and called it the City of David. He built up the area around it, from the terraces inward. And he became more and more powerful, because the Lord God Almighty was with him.

1 Samuel 15:1–2: "Samuel said to Saul, "I am the one the Lord sent to anoint you king over his people Israel; so listen now to the message from the Lord. This is what the Lord Almighty says: 'I will punish the Amalekites for what they did to Israel when they waylaid them as they came up from Egypt."

These verses reflect a reality. The devil is against us; he opposes our activities in every area because he knows we belong to Jesus. All those who hated Jesus will hate the brothers and sisters. Planning the accomplishment of God's work while forgetting that the enemy will come to counteract and oppose our plans is a mistake. We pray for prosperity, and we do well, but true prosperity for a child of God awaits them in the place that God has predestined for them. You must be in God's purpose. When purpose comes from God, it allows you to function in the place where God wants you to be. Paul became great. Despite the hardships, though he sometimes preached in chains, he became a great apostle. He had revelations, insight in warfare, and financial means that he even sent to the church in Jerusalem.

David was meant to be in Jerusalem. There is a place where you are supposed to be. Some people must be missionaries right now, or they will not have their prosperity. When you are where God has predestined you to be, you have God's provision. If you flee, you have fled from your blessings. When you are where you ought to be, with the man you ought to follow, you become prosperous. God does not call anyone to misery; it is the pagans who worry about food and clothes. When the life of a child of God is reduced to seeking food every single day, that is great poverty.

You are going to pray to destroy the devil's obstacles that are preventing you from being with the person God has predestined for you, the obstacles preventing you from being in the place, the city, or the village that God has predestined for you. Everything must come from God: the woman you marry must come from God so that you can be happy. The man must be in God's purpose so that the woman may enjoy a happy marriage. If God wants you to be in Bouaké and you are here in Abidjan, you cannot be what God intended. When you are in God's purpose, like Joseph, even if you are sold and put in prison, you will be great. Even if there are enemies and jealous people, you will become what God intended. Therefore, you are going to break this resistance. You are going to shatter this resistance. You are going to scatter the armies in your way, and you will pass through, walk over, crush, and settle in. David broke through, shattered, and seized the fortress, settled in, and wrote his name on it: the City of David.

> 2 Samuel 5:10, "And he became more and more powerful, because the Lord God Almighty was with him."

He became more and more powerful. Some people flee from the battle. Wherever there is a battle, they run away. David did not run away. People said, "Let us block David's path. Let everyone come—the lame, the blind, come! Let us stop David from entering this city! He must not get in here!" But he entered, and it became the capital of Israel.

Say:

- In the name of Jesus, in agreement with my brothers and sisters, we rise up against all the forces of darkness that the devil has sent to block our way, to close the path, and to prevent the disciples from reaching their places of prosperity and blessing. We break this alliance! We shatter these barriers! Whether among living human beings, among demons, or unclean spirits, we break it! We shatter everything, in the name of Jesus Christ! (Keep praying)
- We break! We shatter! We clear the way! May everyone be established in their city of blessing!
- May everyone be established in their ministry of blessing! We execute judgment against confusion! We execute judgment against ignorance! May everyone know their purpose! (Let us pray in tongues)
- In the name of Jesus, we execute judgment against everything the devil might use—sicknesses, jealousies, divisions, anything the devil can use; we destroy them! We judge the demons behind all these weapons of the devil! We judge the spirits of death! We judge the unclean spirits! (Keep praying)
- In the name of Jesus, in agreement, we bless the people of God with power to confront battles, the power to engage in warfare! O Father, let them understand that victories in battle are the sources of prosperity! Let them understand that every victory brings prosperity and wealth! O Father, grant that everyone understands that fleeing from battles means fleeing from opportunities for blessing!

O Father, may the one who is tempted stand firm! O Father, may the one who is tested stand firm!

Sit down and keep calm

Many brethren are not in their place of blessing; they have fled from battles, they have fled from the hardship. Poverty will always be there.

Abraham was blessed and became rich only when he settled in his territory of blessing. He had taken a detour into Egypt; it was total confusion. There is a place where you ought to be, according to God's plans. There is a place where you are meant to become rich. David became rich despite the opposition of the enemy.

Brother, sister, the Holy Spirit has come down. Be filled with the Holy Spirit. Be restored into God's purpose, be filled with the Holy Spirit; you may worship God, you may speak in tongues.

Let us stand up and pray. Respond to the Lord! There is no specific topic to give you. Respond to the presence of God, respond to the Lord! Respond through prayer, respond through tears, respond through praise (Keep praying in tongues.)

While we are with the Lord, while we are cooperating with Him, He has come down; He is delivering the brethren. Continue to worship Him. Ask the Lord to place you in your city of blessing, to lead you to fulfill His purpose. Ask that you may be joyful in the work at the very heart of His will. As you pray, if there is a demon in the way, the Lord will strike it down! (Let us pray in tongues!)

Keep calm.

The Lord is at work. Let us give thanks to the Lord, who is working. Many will reclaim their city; the confusion is over. There will be joy in serving. The Jebusites, the lame, and the blind will be struck down, without mercy. It will happen just as you are seeing it now. The Lord has raised his right hand to strike, to clear the way, to break down the barriers set up by the Jebusites, the Amalekites, and the wicked.

Pray in tongues; pray with vigor, with strength.

This is a real battle. The Lord is fighting. He is fighting for our freedom, for your freedom.

Say

- In the name of Jesus, may every power of darkness—whose role was to block the way, to keep us from moving forward, to keep us from seeking God and serving Him with love—be struck down by lightning! Let these powers be struck down; let their chariots be shattered, like Pharaoh's chariots in the Red Sea. Let them be struck down like the Jebusites; Let them be struck down like Amalek! Let the way be cleared, for it is written: And it will be said: 'Build up, prepare the road! Remove the obstacles out of the way of my people! (Isaiah 57:14)

In the mighty name of Jesus: We break the obstacles in the path of the little ones. We break the obstacles in the path of the adults. We break the obstacles in the path of the elderly. We break the obstacles in the path of married couples. We break the obstacles in the path of the engaged. We break the obstacles in the path of singles. We break the obstacles in the path of those who are employed. We break the obstacles in the path of job seekers.

Now that you are filled with the Holy Spirit, if there is any resistance, pray! Things will be different. The prayers of a man filled with the Holy Spirit are different from ordinary prayers. Pray, command total victory, command the scattering of the enemy! Let the enemy be scattered, in Jesus' name! Amen!

Keep calm.

- In the name of Jesus, may everything that is hidden be exposed! If there is an evil spirit anywhere, let it manifest itself and leave! Impure spirit, manifest yourself and get out!

In the name of Jesus, let no one hide! If there is a guest in whom a demon has hidden: evil spirit, manifest yourself and get out! If you are a spirit of death, we cast you out!