Evangelistic Message

RID YOURSELF OF YOUR SIN AND COME TO JESUS!

Mark 10.46-52 : «Then they came to Jericho. As Jesus and his disciples, together with a large crowd, were leaving the city, a blind man, Bartimaeus (that is, the Son of Timaeus), was sitting by the roadside begging. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me! "Many rebuked him and told him to be quiet, but he shouted all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." So they called to the blind man, "Cheer up! On your feet! He's calling you. "Throwing his cloak aside, he jumped to his feet and came to Jesus."What do you want me to do for you?" Jesus asked him. The blind man said, "Rabbi, I want to see." "Go," said Jesus, "your faith has healed you." Immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus along the road.»

What does the Word of God reveal in this portion of the Holy Scriptures? You are at this crusade because you are expecting a divine intervention in your life. You want God to intervene in your situation. You believed, and you came all the way here. You are seeking God. You want Him to see you. You want Him to touch you. As we study the miracle recorded in this passage of Scripture, the Holy Spirit will enlighten the eyes of your heart, so that you will see your own miracle come to pass. This is the account of Bartimaeus. Tomorrow, it will be your turn. Your testimony will be read, and you will stand before the people and declare, "This testimony is about me!" What did Bartimaeus do? Did Jesus heal every blind person in the whole world while He was on earth? Why did He heal Bartimaeus?

Bartimaeus was a blind man whose livelihood was begging. He sat by the roadside, wrapped in his old cloak. Stretching out his hand, he pleaded with passers-by to give him some money. Whenever Jesus came to a place during His earthly ministry, great crowds gathered around Him. People came to witness the miracles He performed. Among those crowds were people who knew that, sooner or later, Jesus might multiply bread to feed them. They were not committed. If there was bread, they ate. If a miracle took place, they were amazed. That was the kind of life they lived! Everyone had a reason for following Him.

Now let us examine Bartimaeus' attitude. When he heard the commotion, he asked what was happening. They told him that Jesus of Nazareth had arrived. He knew that wherever Jesus went, there was happiness, joy, and healing. And now he had just been told that the commotion he was hearing was because of the presence of Jesus.

He began to shout; he knew that this was a unique opportunity for him. Ever since Jesus had started performing miracles, Bartimaeus had never been within His reach. How could a blind man like him possibly get close to Jesus? He knew that this man, Jesus, had the solution to his problem. As he shouted, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" some people were disturbed by his cries. They told him, "Be quiet." But he just shouted even louder! When you find the Saviour, if you choose to be proud, if you are ashamed, you will perish. No one could stop Bartimaeus from shouting. When you find Jesus, shout to Him. Call upon Him. Ask Him for help. Show Him that you are convinced that He is the One who has the solution to your problem. He was saying, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me! Leave me alone. I am a blind man; I want to see!"

Jesus, the merciful One, the Man of compassion, stopped when He heard his cries. He could not remain unmoved before such misery. He stopped and said, "Call him." Here was a blind man being honoured; the King of kings was calling him. The Prince of Peace was calling him. The Lion of the tribe of Judah was calling him. The Everlasting Father was calling him. The Saviour, the Lord, was calling him. What happened then? The people around him said, "Get up! Take courage; He is calling you."

I have noticed that there are people who are full of themselves. They are ashamed everywhere they go, even to the point of death. If you are ashamed and die in your sins, you will go to the lake of fire. You will die for nothing.If you are hungry, tell your brother that you are hungry. They told him, "Take courage. Make an effort; He is calling you." Your problem ends today.

At that moment, the blind beggar took the first prophetic action. He threw off his old cloak as a blind man. I can imagine the condition of that old, dirty cloak, which represents sin. Bartimaeus understood that because Jesus was calling him, he had to get rid of it. He threw it away. When Jesus calls you, quickly throw off your old cloak; abandon sin. Even if it is a fetish that someone told you to never part with, abandon it! He threw away the dirty cloak and jumped to his feet. When Jesus calls you, you must examine everything.

You must understand that the Holy Spirit allowed these things to happen so that they could be written down. When the Holy Spirit is in charge of the record, every powerful and important detail is recorded. God sees how His Son calls you and how you respond. Some people hold on to their chairs while saying, "I don't want to go," when the Holy Spirit calls them. Stay where you are, and you will see what will happen to you.

If Bartimaeus had not encountered Jesus, he would have continued to suffer. He was blind, but he could still sit and beg for alms. However, there comes a point where he could no longer do even that. When God calls you, you must take decisive action.

Before we continue with this message, ask Jesus for what you want. Everything we are doing here is real. The Word of God tells us that Jesus asked Bartimaeus, "What do you want me to do for you?" You are a Bartimaeus. Therefore, answer the question Jesus is asking you.

Let us stand.

Ask God for something. Jesus said that His Father had given Him everything—everything in heaven and on earth. Ask Him for what you desire.

Bartimaeus answered, "Master, I want to see." For us, this was a great request, something difficult. But for Jesus, it was a small problem. Jesus said to him, "Go; your faith has saved you." Bartimaeus believed in the Lord Jesus. As he heard about everything Jesus was doing, he knew it was true. He knew about all the miracles. When he heard that Jesus had arrived, he shouted. Humanly speaking, it was just a shout, but spiritually, Jesus saw the faith of Bartimaeus. When you want to receive something from Jesus, you must not doubt. These are real things that must happen in your life. The faith of Bartimaeus saved him; your faith will save you. Tonight, God will give you what you believe for.

You came and sat here; you did the right thing. However, go all the way. Bartimaeus followed Jesus on the road. This is a very powerful part of the Gospel. When Jesus saves you, you must follow Him. Jesus gives you money, and you give it to the marabout and the kômian to practice witchcraft. Bartimaeus followed Jesus. You must follow Jesus. He will bless you, but your responsibility is to follow Him.

The Bible says that Jesus gave Himself to have a people who belong to Him. Jesus did not die in vain. He is not a fool to come and die in vain. He came to die so that all the redeemed would belong to Him. He healed Bartimaeus, and Bartimaeus followed Him.

> It is written 2 Corinthians 5: 14-15 "For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died.And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again."

You must receive Jesus, and you must remain with Him. You must belong to Him. He must not have to contend with the devil over you. Throw off your old cloak and, with one leap, run to Him.

Warfare Prayer

GOD IS MOVED BY THE THINGS THAT BURDEN US AND ROB US OF OUR SLEEP.

You are going to write down ten prayer requests and pray according to your needs. No one is going to control you. It is God who will listen to you. If you take your needs to a man like me, I may discourage you and say, "No, what you are asking for is impossible. God cannot give it to you." I may even criticize you and tell you that you are not spiritual. But when you take your needs to God, He Himself is your Father. When children ask their parents for something, they simply ask. If it is good for them, their parents grant their request. If your request is not right, only God has the right to say to you, "My daughter," or "My son, your request is not right." It is not for any man to tell you that. Pour out your heart before God.

You must understand that Jesus knew His Father wanted Him to die on the cross, yet as the Son, He still said to God, "If it is possible, take this cup away from me." Suppose God had told you that He did not want you to have children. You can say to God, "This is too much; I want a child." He is free to answer your prayer. You are also free, through the power of the blood of Jesus, to bring your problem before Him. God is good. God is compassionate. God is merciful. Bring your problem before Him. Maybe you have only one prayer request; you are not compelled to write ten. Simply write down that one prayer request.

Every normal child of God should have even a thousand prayer requests. If you are asked to give only ten requests, do not pretend to be very spiritual by acting as though you do not have many problems. Your prayer must be the expression of your inner man. Your requests must touch your heart and weigh heavily on you before they touch the heart of God. Your needs must trouble you and rob you of your sleep.

- God said to Solomon, "Ask Me for whatever you want, and I will give it to you." Solomon replied, "Give me wisdom and understanding." And God said to him, "Because this is what is in your heart, I will give it to you." Say to God:

O God, answer me! Answer me! Answer me!

- Let us begin to pray in tongues! Pray in tongues! Say:
- Eternal Father, You said in Your Word: "Call on me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you, and you will honor me." O Father, I am in distress. (Continue praying in tongues.)
- O Father, You know my heart! You know my suffering! You know my anxieties! You know my fears!

O Father, answer me!

- Continue praying in tongues. Focus and pray! Listen to the Holy Spirit! Focus, pray, and listen to the Holy Spirit! Continue praying.
- Cry out to God and ask Him to come to your rescue!(Pray in tongues.)
- O Father, answer us! O Father, answer us! O Father, answer us! O Father, answer us!(Continue praying.)

Plead with the Lord!

- O Father, answer us! O Father, answer us! O Father, answer us! You are the only One who can help us! You are the only One who can heal us! You are the only One who can deliver us! You are the only One who can heal us! You are the only One who can deliver us! Answer us! Answer us! O Father, answer us!

Present your requests before God and pray until God steps into your problems! Pray until God intervenes in your situation! Continue praying until you touch the heart of God. Wrestle with God as Jacob wrestled. (Pray in tongues.) God will bless you.

Say to God:

- O God, if You do not bless me, I will not let You go! O God, bless me! O God, heal me! O God, deliver me! Continue interceding like Jacob, who wrestled with God.

Say:

- O God, who else can deliver me from cancer? O Father, who else can deliver me from AIDS? Who else can deliver me from diabetes? Who else can deliver me from kidney failure? Who else can deliver me from fibroids, cysts, and myomas?
- Continue to pray!
- O God, who else can touch my spine and bring healing? Who else but You can deliver me from this cancer in my breast? Who else but You can deliver me from prostate disease?
- O Father, who else can deliver me from this glaucoma? (Pray in tongues.)
- O Father, who else can deliver me from this disgrace that my enemies have placed upon me because they want me dead? O Father, act! O Father, act! O Father, intervene! O Father, act!

Let us stand and continue to intercede. Say:

- O Father, come and remove this disgrace that my enemies have placed upon me. O Father, deliver me from this disgrace that my enemies have placed upon me.

Stay focused. You can make a vow to God. The battle continues in the unseen realm, but you, speak to God. Pray like Jacob. Say to God: "I will not let You go. You can heal me, You can deliver me, You can break the yoke, You can give me rest, You can give me a child, You can give me a husband, You can give me a wife."

Say to God:

- You can do it. You can do it in the heavens. You can do it on the earth. You can do it under the earth. You can do it in the waters. You can do it in the places beneath the waters. You can do it in the mountains. You can do it in the roots of the mountains. You can do it in the roots of trees. You can do it in the tops of trees. You can do it in sacred forests. You can do it in occult places; You can do it. O Father, act! (Pray in tongues.)

You can do it in the realm of the dead. You can do it in the kingdom of serpents. You can do it in the kingdom of masks. You can break adversity. You can scatter armies. You can command the deliverance of Your people, and it will be carried out! (Keep calm.)

Say:

- Evil spirit, be gone! (insist)

Continue speaking to God. When we call upon God the Father, He acts. If He finds demons on the way, He strikes them down. If He finds a mountain, He uproots it. You call upon Him. He Himself knows who your enemy is. He knows how to uproot it! He will give you freedom. Speak with confidence!

If a cough persists, it is a demon manifesting itself. If the Lord reveals a sin to you, ask Him for forgiveness. There must be no obstacle. If you had hemorrhoids, you may feel that they have gone back in. You hear a sound, and then peace settles over your body.

Say to the Lord:

What I am asking You for is a miracle, and You are the God of miracles. (insist .)

As you speak to Him, believe; many diseases will disappear. Things like the yoke of poverty will be broken. When we call upon Almighty God with faith, without doubting, we see His mighty works.

Say to God:

- Lord, let this thing that moves through my body like a reptile come out and never return! Lord, let this thing that moves through my body like a serpent disappear!
- In the name of Jesus, let everything that moves in my stomach like a reptile be struck down and judged!
  (Pray about this earnestly.)

In the name of Jesus, if there is a sister, a woman, to whom a spirit husband has attached himself, we tear him away from her and separate her from this spirit! We tear him away and separate her from this spirit, in the name of Jesus Christ!

In many testimonies, spirit husbands cling to their victims and refuse to leave. Some cling to the back, others to the abdomen, and others to the private parts, causing great suffering.

Say:

- We strike you! Be gone! We separate you!

We strike you! Be gone! We declare that Jesus died for this person; you cannot remain here! Be gone! We separate you! We break every bond! We pull you out! We cast you into the dust! We strike you! Wherever a spirit husband has attached himself to anyone, we tear him loose with the fire of God! Let the fire of God consume you! Let every captive be set free, every bond be broken, and every chain be shattered! Be free, in the name of Jesus!

Raise your right hand and say:

- We set free every man who is bound to a spirit wife! Even if it is a homosexual spirit husband, we smash every chain! We shatter every chain! We set the captives free! We set the captives free together with all their wealth! We set the captives free together with all their blessings! We set the captives free together with all the grace God has given them! We restore each one to the grace God has given them!

Keep calm.

Let us stand.

Some people arrived yesterday or today. They were not present for some of these battles. We are going to judge every evil spirit that follows anyone to trouble their life. Even if it has been here from the very beginning and has resisted until this day, let it be struck down! Let its punishment be tripled! There will be total victory! If you have seen the spirit husband again, do not be discouraged. He must be struck down!

Say:

- In the name of Jesus, we strike down every unclean spirit. Whether it is a spirit of death, death itself, or an evil spirit, it must leave. Be gone! We strike you! Evil spirit, you are struck down! Be gone! Be gone and never return! (Continue praying.)

Out and be gone! We break every bond! We shatter every chain! We break every prison! If there is anyone who is still in a prison, we break that prison!

Sit down and remain calm. No one should be hiding in your life!

- In the name of Jesus, if you are in someone's life to bring disgrace and shame, you are judged! If you have been sent into someone's life to attach disgrace to them, we drive you out from there!
- Every spirit whose purpose is to humiliate the person it possesses, every demon whose purpose is to bring disgrace through poverty, so that the person has to beg for everything, and even when they ask, they are not granted what they ask for—we cut your chains into pieces!
- Anyone who has been humiliated by misery and poverty, we declare that you are free! You have been humiliated by poverty; we separate you from poverty! We break the chains of poverty! We cast out the demons sent by Satan and his agents to keep you in misery, to ensure that you have no clothes or food, and that people come to borrow money or belongings from you but never return them.

- Evil spirit that has brought the disgrace of poverty, be gone, in the name of Jesus Christ!
- If you are a woman whose mother-in-law opposed your marriage, and when you finally succeeded in getting married, she placed the disgrace of barrenness upon you; you are ashamed, and she is rejoicing—demon of the disgrace of barrenness, be gone! We shatter this disgrace! We set you free, in the name of Jesus Christ!

In the name of Jesus, anyone who has been rejected by people and by their friends because of a great lie that was told about them, you are delivered! The God of justice, seated on the throne, has seen your situation; you are set free! Let that lie be banished!

Raise your right hand and say:

- If you are a brother or sister entangled in a court case built on lies, the lies of the ungodly and wicked people, we declare your victory. We shatter the chains of falsehood! We burn up the web of lies, in the name of Jesus Christ!

Say:

- In the name of Jesus, if there is a demon, an evil spirit, still hiding in the life of a brother, whether he is joining us online or is here in Attiékoi, we expose that demon to the judgment of God! We expose you to the judgment of God! We expose you to the fire of God! Out and be gone, in the name of Jesus! In the name of Jesus, we shatter every resistance!
- If there is a spirit of death following a visitor, we cast it out!

If you are a spirit of sickness that has followed someone here, we cast you out! Take your sickness and Leave!

Raise your right hand and say:

- In the name of Jesus, we declare victory to all the brothers who are casting out demons! We shatter the resistance of the demons!
- If you are a serpent spirit, if you have hidden yourself somewhere while maintaining a hold on a soul, waiting to return after the prayer, serpent spirit, we judge you and strike you down! We cast you out of this body!

In the name of Jesus, if the spirit of an ancestor has incarnated someone in its lineage, if the spirit of a dead person is in your body and in your soul, if your spirit has become its temple and it refuses to leave because it is your relative, spirit of death that has incarnated someone, we strike you down and cast you out! Come out and be gone!

Place your hands on your head and say:

- Lord Jesus, work Your deliverance in me!
- Lord Jesus, work Your healing in me!
- I receive Your healing in me!

Demon of sickness, be gone! Sickness, be gone! Come out! Leave my body! By the stripes of Christ, I am healed!

- Begin to do the movements you could not do before! If you were using a cane, put it aside and walk!
- Jesus heals! Jesus forgives! Jesus forgives!
